WEATHER.

U. S. Department of Agriculture,
Weather Bureau,
Toledo, March 30, 1892.
Weather Conditions.

The low barometer area which was central over the Dakotas has moved about 500 miles to the southeast, and is central over Iowa and moving eastward, bringing continued cloudy and showery weather and higher temperature. This "low" area is followed by a second one in the extreme northwest, which will cross the Rocky mountains and develop on the eastern slope with the usual accompaniment of unsettled weather. The high area center is passing out the St. Lawrence valley, which will leave almost the entire country under the influence of these low barometer areas. Light rains were falling at Keokuk, St. Paul and Cincinnati. The rains reported for the past 24 hours were generally light, the heaviest being at Omaha, amounting to nearly an inch. Bismarck and North Platte show the lowest temperatures, being 28 and 26 degrees respectively. An average temperature of 44 degrees prevails over the upper Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

The weather in this vicinity for to-day will be slightly cooler with showers, followed Thursday with showers and warmer, probably clearing in afternoon.

Ohio—Showers to-day; clearing Thursday morning; warmer; southerly winds.

For Indiana and Illinois—Showers to-day and generally fair on Thursday; southwesterly winds; warmer in northern portions.

For Michigan and Wisconsin—Threatening weather and rain; probably clearing during Thursday; warmer; southeasterly winds.

"Looks like a ghost!" That's what they say of the pale, thin, weak woman who's "run-down" and overworked. Probably she knows it herself. But there's one thing she can't know, or she wouldn't feel so and look so—and that is, that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to help her.

It's a legitimate medicine, made especially for woman's needs; an invigorating, restorative tonic and a soothing and strengthening nervine, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system.

But it isn't a mere stimulant. It's a remedy, safe and sure, for all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that make women suffer. In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, internal inflammation, ulceration, and kindred ailments, it's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned.

No other medicine for women is sold so. Proof that nothing else is "just as good."

ENGLAND'S VIEW

Of the Arbitration Treaty Just Signed.

Thinks John Bull Has the Best of It

And That the Commission of Arbitration

Will Decide Against United States Claims.

The Senate's Action Looked on in London as a Complete Victory For Lord Salisbury—Time Alone Will Tell.

London, March 30.—The news of the approval by the American senate of the Bering sea arbitration treaty was received with greatest satisfaction and is considered a crowning triumph of Lord Salisbury's administration.

No doubt is expressed that the arbitration will decide fairly. It is remembered that both Sweden and Italy are eminently friendly to England. Sweden looks to England as a friend in the vent of the Russian encroachment upon the Scandinavian peninsula, and Italy is equally or even more dependent upon British naval co-operation in the Mediterranean.

In fact it is understood that an agreement has for some years existed between Italy and England. Another reason why it is believed that Sweden will incline to the English contention is that the Swedes themselves, as a northern maritime people, may wish to have a share in the seal hunting, and Swedish and Norwegian sailors are largely employed on the Canadian vessels employed in that pursuit.

Sweden has a strong general interest, also, in keeping the northern seas open to the whole world.

On the question of the seals being ferae naturae, the English are equally confident, and expect to be able to satisfy the arbitrators that the claim to ownership in those animals is utterly untenable.

It is now known that much of the rather defiant tone of the British government press, and of utterances supposed to be officially inspired, was not sincere, and that Lord Salisbury has never thought for a moment of spilling any British blood in defense of the seals.

He is said to be confident of ultimate triumph in the arbitration and would not think of war for one year's catch of seals. The tories are everywhere boasting of the way that the government has taken the wind out of the liberals' sails and added signal prestige to Lord Salisbury's foreign policy.

In view of the American cable this morning, news of Admiral Hotham's vessel, the Warsprite, is impatiently awaited. She is one of the finest vessels in the British navy and the report that she was seen flying signals that may have indicated distress has caused serious anxiety.

INTO A PIT OF FIRE.

Hose Men Dumped Into a Furnace.

Destructive Fire in a Boston Hotel—A Number of Persons Injured.

Boston, March 30.—At 4 o'clock this morning fire started in the engine room of Clark's hotel, Washington street, and quickly spread through the lower floors. Some of the guests jumped from the third floor, being too bewildered to use the fire escape ropes. Three men were badly hurt. One of them, E. W. Perry, of Leominster, Mass., is at the hospital, and T. W. Southbridge, of Cambridge, is probably fatally injured.

The property loss is estimated at from $20,000 to $30,000.

The other man injured was a Mr. Stockwell, of Laconia, N. H., one of his legs having been broken.

There were about fifty guests in the hotel, among them members of the "Shenandoah" company.

Three members of engine 26 had a narrow escape from death. They were precipitated into the front basement by the giving way of the grating protecting the basement window. The cellar was a mass of flames, and for the moment it seemed as if the men must be burned to death. They were safely rescued, however, although in an exhausted condition.

Mr. Perry died shortly after his arrival at the hospital.

Exit by the stairways being cut off by the dense smoke, the terrified guests made for the escapes on Avery place. It was some time before the excited throng could get the escape in working order, and then began a wild scramble to reach the ground. In descending Perry was either pushed or fell off at the third floor.

In looking for an exit Mr. Southworth mistook the elevator shaft and fell down three stories, landing on his head. He was badly injured.

The fire spread so rapidly that it was impossible for the guests to save anything. The firemen rescued six chambermaids from the attics with considerable difficulty.

There were 500 guests asleep in the Adams house, which adjoins Clark's hotel, where the fire occurred. They were aroused, but did not leave the hotel.

There were numerous narrow escapes from asphyxiation and the firemen carried about several men in an unconscious condition.

A number of drummers were registered at the hotel and some of them lost valuable samples.

The building is owned by Edward Bangs. The loss on the building is estimated at $25,000. The lessee, Marcus C. Clark, loses $20,000; insured. Charles Green & Co., tailors, 585 Washington street, lose from $5,000 to $10,000 by smoke and water, partly insured. Among the guests at the hotel was Mr. Lipson, of New York, who was slightly hurt on one hand. None of the other guests except those mentioned above were injured.

WATER IN THE STOCK.

De Lesseps Charged With Swindling.

Testimony Being Taken in New York.

French Courts Want to Know the Reason Why the Value of the Panama Stock Was Inflated.

New York, March 30.—Count Ferdinand de Lesseps, the great French engineer, is charged by the courts of France with swindling and breach of trust.

As the transaction upon which the accusation is based occurred in New York, the greater portion of the testimony to be used in the trial must be taken here.

The French consul general recently received letters derogatory for the examination of many of the most prominent American financiers, and in accordance with these, Messrs. Jesse Seligman, Edward Winslow and Charles G. Francklyn were yesterday sworn as witnesses in the supreme court. Many other well-known financiers will be called upon for testimony.

The alleged swindle and breach of trust specifically set up against Count de Lesseps occurred in the deal through which he and the other trustees of the Universal Inter-Oceanic Panama Canal company obtained control of the Panama Railroad company more than ten years ago.

The deal involved the purchase of 68,534 shares of the railroad company's stock. For this the stockholders in the canal company had to pay about $268.25 a share, though it is claimed that the market value of the stock certainly did not exceed $100 a share, and was probably less.

It is this little watering of railroad stock that the French authorities are inclined to regard as a swindle and a crime. The French courts want to have the matter thoroughly sifted, and to discover the reason why $268.25 was charged for every hundred dollar share.

BLAZE IN CINCINNATI.

The Ohio Buggy Company Damaged.

On St. Patrick's Day the Green Flag Floated Above the Stars and Stripes.

Cincinnati, March 15.—At 4:15 o'clock this morning fire started in the factory of the Ohio Spiral Buggy company, at the corner of Court and Sycamore streets. The building is a seven-story structure, valued at $75,000.

The Ohio company had a stock valued at $60,000, on which there was a partial insurance, and which is a complete loss. The building was only partially insured. The loss on it is not yet known.

How the fire originated is a mystery, but this is the same building on which the green flag floated above the stars and stripes on St. Patrick's day.

The company was a co-operative concern, of which Mr. Cummings was the president.

A BRUTE AT HUBBARD.

Youngstown, O., March 30.—A sensation was caused in Hubbard yesterday by Oscar Sparrow, a hostler, calling at the residence of Mrs. John Pollott and finding her husband away locked the door and attempted a criminal assault. Mrs Pollott grasped a poker and beat the scoundrel until he escaped through a window. Sparrow was caught and on being arraigned, pleaded guilty and was sent to jail in default of bail.

ALL FOR IRELAND'S GOOD

Stormy Meeting of the American Federation,

Which Has Taken the Place of the League.

Mingled Hisses and Cheers Greeted Archbishop Corrigan When He Appeared on the Stage.

New York, March 30.—The first public meeting in this city of the Irish Federation of America, the new organization which is designed to supplant the Irish National league, was marked by disorder, inspired by the Parnellites who were present in large numbers; and the police, to preserve anything like order, had to forcibly eject from Cooper Union at least twenty men and women.

Notwithstanding the unruly demonstrations of the minority, who came prepared to create a disturbance, the meeting is considered to have been a success. Cooper Union was packed to the doors, fully 3,000 people being present.

At 8 o'clock, when Charles A. Dana, Dr. Thomas Addis Emmett, Archbishop Corrigan and other prominent gentlemen appeared on the platform, there went round the hall a storm of mingled hisses and cheers. Many rose to their feet, but still the hisses continued. "Three cheers for the archbishop," shouted somebody, and the hisses were drowned with the cheers that followed.

Dr. Thomas Addis Emmett, the president of the organization, rose to call the meeting to order, but at that moment a lank individual got up and cried out: "Three cheers for Parnell." There was another storm of hisses. "Put him out," yelled the crowd. Capt. McCullagh and his 25 policemen became alert for disturbers, and the man was hustled out of the hall.

Dr. Emmett then explained that the National Federation of America was formed to forward home rule for Ireland, an object held dear by every Irishman outside of the influence of the tory party. "Its existence is in full co-operation with the National Federation of Ireland, and the funds raised through its influence in this country will be transmitted to the Committee of the National Irish party and used for no other purpose than to defray the expenses for the coming election of parliament. A full measure of home rule cannot be gained unless a full delegation be sent to parliament." (Prolonged hisses.)

Charles A. Dana spoke. He admonished that it was only by harmony among themselves that the Irish could hope to gain home rule in the near future. They should fight their enemies, not each other.

Professor John P. Brophy, of St. Louis college, the next speaker, was saying that the crisis in Irish history had now come. How could Ireland be now best served? At this point Mrs. Margaret Moore, a well-known Irish woman, who has been in Kilmainham, cried out: "You can serve Ireland by following Parnell!" This created the wildest excitement. The Parnellites who resented the ejection of several disorderly persons during Dr. Emmet's introductory speech, cheered themselves hoarse.

Police Captain McCullagh walked up the center aisle and said that any one who did not come to hear what the speakers had to say would better leave the hall or not interrupt. Mrs. Moore, however, stood up, defiantly. She was finally induced to resume her seat. Several times friends of Dr. McGlynn called for cheers for that gentleman who sat in their midst in a rear section of the hall with a quiet smile on his face. When Archbishop Corrigan walked onto the platform and took a seat the applause that greeted him drowned all attempts at hissing by the friends of Dr. McGlynn.

Capt. McCullagh personally ejected T. St. John Gaffney, a member of the municipal council of the Irish National league, who attempted to interrupt the speakers. When Professor Brophy, having resumed speaking, referred to Gladstone and said that he held the power of England in his hand, there were hisses, which were drowned, however, by cheers. In conclusion Prof. Brophy said: "We must Americanize Irish politics and then you will have a union of forces invincible."

Dr. William B. Wallace, of New York, said that the man who allowed his personal prejudices to interfere with his success in its efforts for home rule was not fit to live in Ireland or America.

Between $3,000 and $4,000 was subscribed for Ireland and these resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in this, the long expected time when the fruit of so many years of labor is to be gathered and the reward of so many sacrifices by the sons of Ireland is to be attained, it becomes the first duty of every friend of her cause to unite in a final effort to hasten the coming thereof.

Resolved, That the generosity which the people of America have shown in support of Ireland and self-government must not be rendered unavailing by any neglect or apathy at this supreme moment.

Resolved, That for the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing resolutions we proceed immediately to raise funds by subscription and organization in order to secure by legitimate means for every Irish constituency an active nationalist representation.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

Valparaiso, March 30.—A serious earthquake occurred at Arica yesterday and caused great alarm among its inhabitants. It was accompanied by a heavy tidal wave. The shock was felt at both Valparaiso and Santiago.

THE TREATY RATIFIED.

All Trouble With England Will Cease.

Salisbury's Modification Will be Accepted.

Senator Cullom Thinks the Way is Now Clear for a Settlement of All Canadian Fishery Questions.

Washington, March 30.—There was a full attendance of members at the regular meeting of the cabinet yesterday. The session was mainly devoted to the consideration of the response to be made to Lord Salisbury's latest proposition for a suspension of pelagic sealing in Bering sea pending arbitration proceedings.

It is understood that the cabinet practically agreed to accept Lord Salisbury's proposition for a renewal of last year's modus vivendi, with certain limitations as to the character of damages to be left to the determination of the arbitrators. It is expected that the president will communicate his views on the subject to Sir Julian Pauncefote in a few days.

Two hours spent in executive session by the senate sufficed to complete the consideration of the Bering sea arbitration treaty and it was ratified by a unanimous vote at the conclusion of the discussion.

The debate itself was without incident. Mr. Sherman, who had the treaty in charge, presented two amendments which it was believed to be desirable to incorporate in the document, and they were agreed to.

One of them provides that the arguments and proceedings before the arbitrators shall be in the English language. This amendment was suggested to Sir Julian Pauncefote a day or two ago. He said it appeared to be proper, but that he should like to secure the formal assent of Lord Salisbury to it.

This assent came in the form of a cablegram which was shown to the president by the British minister and was at once sent to Senator Sherman, who caused the necessary amendment to be incorporated in the treaty. Exactly the same procedure was followed in the case of the second amendment, which changes article 11 of the treaty so as to require the arbitrators to make their decision, if possible, within four months, instead of three, from the close of the argument of counsel. The change was believed to be desirable in view of the magnitude of the subject and the enormous volume of testimony to be considered by the arbitrators.

The opposition to ratification, which had been very much weakened, completely disappeared as the result of Mr. Sherman's explanation, and when the question was taken directly on the resolution of ratification there were no nays, while the yeas numbered 72, an unusually large vote in the senate.

After the result had been announced, the usual resolution notifying the president of the action of the senate was passed and consideration of the treaty was complete. There was an air of relief about the senators as they emerged from the chamber where they have been sitting behind closed doors for so many hours during the past two weeks.

All of them were glad the troublesome treaty had been disposed of at last.

Senator Cullom admitted that he had originally felt it should not be ratified as it looked like a surrender of our legitimate rights.

But upon reflection he had concluded that it was the best that could be done at this time, and he believed its ratification marked a distinct advance in civilization. Such disputes as these, he said, would not very many years ago have caused nations to fly at each other's throats and cost many lives. He saw no reason why, if we had a just claim, we should fear to submit it to the decision of arbitrators.

He also believed that the effect of the ratification of this treaty would be larger than was commonly supposed, for he thought it would lead to a final settlement of the long standing difficulties which have arisen from the conflicting claims of the United States and Canadian fishermen on the Atlantic coast.

HAVE BOMBS FOR SALE.

Paris Greatly Alarmed by Anarchists

Whom the Police Fail to Discover.

Dynamiters Have so Scared the Foreigners That They are About to Leave the Great City

Paris, March 30.—The anarchist excitement is greater than ever. Certain foreigners living in the St. Germain quarter have, it seems, sent a delegation to the district mayor, asking whether he could guarantee their safety.

This official, named M. Marmettan, assured them that the most energetic measures residing in Paris had nothing to fear.

Some foreigners, however, do not quite see how M. Marmettan's assurances of complete security can be correct because none of the authors of the present or previous dynamite outrages have been arrested, and there is nothing to guarantee them against being in a house where reckless anarchists may be staying.

Be this as it may, it must be admitted that if the police have not shown themselves very clever in laying their hands on the criminals who perpetrated these outrages, the anarchists have not yet succeeded in doing much damage, at least to human life.

The entire force of the Paris police is now alert, and actively engaged in ferreting out the origin of the dynamite outrages.

The nature of the secret measures, planned at yesterday's cabinet meeting, was to a certain extent revealed to-day, when the news got abroad that some 35 police commissaries received a letter ordering them to be present at 5 o'clock this morning at their respective offices where they were furnished with search warrants for their various districts.

It is particularly in the suburbs of Paris, and more especially in the St. Denis, St Ouen and Pantin quarters, where the search has been and is being directed.

St Denis has, perhaps, the most odious reputation of all. It is a quarter where during the past year, there have been many irritating anti-patriotic disturbances, and anarchists hide in its cheap lodging houses in greater numbers that elsewhere. The search so far, although more vigorously conducted, has not been more successful that the previous police invasion.

Special watch is kept over the Palais de L'Industrie, which is filling up with pictures and statues destined to figure in the coming salon. It is feared that an attempt at damage may be made there during the drawing of the conscription. Nothing would, indeed, be easier than for an anarchist to mix in the crowd of young men and throw a bomb which, considering the large quantity of inflammable materials in the Palais de L'Industrie might result in the complete destruction of the building and its valuable contents.

A singular fact is that some anarchists are said to be making a traffic of the deadly explosives in their possession, and persons whom they can trust can readily buy a bomb. This opens a tempting opportunity to persons inclined to revenge, and there is no doubt that some of the outrages attributed to anarchists are really acts of private vengeance for real or imaginary injuries.

PAWNEES IN FULL WAR PAINT.

Witnesses Against Frank White and Buffalo Black Afraid to Return.

Guthrie, Okla., March 30.—Although it was at first contradicted by some United States deputy marshals the report proves to be true that the Pawnee Indian ghost-dance has become more warlike.

Two hundred men are already mounted, in full war paint, and are fast being joined by others.

Deputy Marshal Zeverns and a posse of men arrested Frank White and Buffalo Black in the reservation and brought them to Guthrie. They were bound over in the sum of $1,000 each to the Wichita court on the charge of attempting to create an insurrection among the Indians and were sent to the Wichita jail.

The deputy arrested the men and took them from the reservation in the night, thinking he had not been seen, but when about three miles out of the agency he was pursued, and a hot chase was made after him by a dozen riders clear to Ponca station, on the Santa Fe route.

Harry Coons, judge of the Indian court; Joseph Murie, clerk, and John Morris, captain of the police, are here and were witnesses against the men arrested. They are afraid to return to the reservation. They are educated Indians and do not believe in the craze.

Joseph Lytle Tries to Murder His Family.

Brutal and Bloody Assault in Findlay.

Wife and Two Daughters the Object

Of a Bad Man's Murderous Intent.

The Brilliant City Adds a Crime to Her Calendar Which Will Attract Attention Among the Worst of the Present Time.

Findlay, O., March 30.—(Special)—Joseph Lytle, a notorious criminal and bad character, who has been a terror to his family for years past, added another chapter to his many crimes between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning, at the family home on Cherry street.

The particulars are as follows: Lytle has been divorced from his wife for nearly two years past. For some time he has been at the Dayton soldiers' home. He returned to Findlay on Sunday night. Yesterday he visited his wife and tried to effect a reconciliation and have her live with him again, but she was afraid of him and refused to do so.

The wretch then concluded to murder the whole family.

He assaulted his wife and two oldest daughters, Misses Della and Emma, with a hatchet and butcher knife, striking them right and left with murderous intent and succeeded so well that it is feared all three will die from the many horrible cuts received on their heads and bodies.

Thinking no doubt he had accomplished his bloody purpose he then proceeded to break up the home, smashing the furniture to pieces including a fine piano.

Lytle is a man nearly 50 years of age, in jail by Marshal Myers, who resided near by.

No criminal act has been committed it was his intention to kill the whole family.

Mrs. Lytle was a daughter of George Peck, one of the oldest and best known families in the city.

Tytle is a man nearly 50 years of age, and has served time in the penitentiary and several terms in the work house for his many deeds of violence.

No criminal act has been committeed in this city for years past that has caused such a bitter feeling against the criminal.

The attending physicians claim it is doubtful if any of the three victims recover.

There are several younger children, but they escaped.

Lytle expresses fears of being lynched, but claims he is willing to die. If the citizens want to hang him he will walk out and allow them to adjust the rope.

RUSTLERS ON THE WARPATH

Cattle Thieves Are Running Wyoming.

Prairie Pirates Shooting Down Horses and Cattle and Defying the Law Officers.

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 30.—Word came from Johnson county yesterday of newer and bolder outrages by range hustlers. They have been shooting down horses and cattle for a fortnight, and scores of carcasses lie on feeding grounds.

The prairie pirates select the property of large owners, who have been vigorously endeavoring to stop the stealing. One rider reports seeing a number of animals bearing Senator Carey's brand with several rifle bullets in each.

The thieves are running Johnson, Natrona and Converse counties. They declare that they own every hoof in the state subdivision and defy the law. Nearly every prominent range owner has been warned that he will be killed if he visits the "rustler district."

A BUILDING BOOM

Has Struck In on the Future Great in Good Shape.

A fair-sized building boom struck the city clerk's office yesterday and to-day, and permits were issued as follows: John Reibert, $250 frame addition, Western avenue; J. F. Frederick, $100 brick addition, Cherry street; John Fleiss, $800 frame dwelling on Prouty avenue; Mary Schultz, $200 frame dwelling on Dorr street; George Baumgardner, $1,000 frame dwelling on Sixth street; Frank Neiss, two frame dwellings, $1,500, Nebraska avenue; H. C. Elliott, $3,000 frame dwelling on Glenwood avenue; Shaw, Kendall & Co., $5,000 brick building on Washington street; Thomas A. Giles, $1,000 frame store on Summit avenue, H. King, $100 frame addition, Walbridge avenue; George Niedon, $800 frame dwelling on Lafayette street; B. McManus, $300 frame addition, Thirteenth street.

Findlay Gets a Serious Scorching.

A Number of Buildings and Much Property Wiped Out by Flames.

Findlay, March 30.—(Special)—The old novelty manufacturing building on West Crawford street was completely gutted by fire at an early hour this morning.

In the building was Dow's steam laundry, a saloon, the free museum and several tenants.

The flames caught in the saloon. The building is owned by a Cincinnati syndicate and including John A. Scott, of this city.

The loss is estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000, partially insured.

A. Reed's leather store, the central police station, Smith & McGeary's marble shop near by had very narrow escapes.

KILLED FOR SPORT.

Zan Furmen's Fatal Shot in Georgia.

Tragic Sequel to a Sunday Singing School.

Boys Plot to Get Even With a Rival,

And the Affair Ends in Murder.

Jealousy in the Minds of Hot-Headed Southern Youths Causes a Tragedy—The Murderer's Escape and Confession.

New York, March 30.—Benjamin H. Collyer, sheriff of Jackson county, Georgia, came to New York to take charge of Zan Farmer, a self-confessed murderer, who escaped from a deputy sheriff in Jackson county, Georgia, last May. Sheriff Collyer walked into the Tombs police court, accompanied by Detective Icap of Inspector Byrnes' staff, who introduced him to Justice Duffy and asked that the prisoner be formally turned over to the Georgian.

Sheriff Collyer created somewhat of a sensation in the police court. He is a magnificently built man, standing 6 feet 3 in his stocking feet. He looks as though he might be able to handle a regiment of murderers single handed. He recited the facts of the murder in a quiet way. The story has all the elements of a thrilling romance. The crime was committed on Sunday night, May 10, 1891, on a lonely road about two miles from the village of Nicholson, in Jackson county.

The country thereabouts is populated largely by farmers and on Sunday evenings it is the custom to hold a singing-school class at some one or other of the farm houses.

On this Sunday evening the singing class met at Sam Suddeth's house, which is about a mile from the Farmer homestead. About 10 o'clock, after a most enjoyable evening, the meeting broke up, and the young people dispersed in couples. Zan Farmer asked Dora McElhammer, a young girl of 17, if he might see her home.

She accepted him as her escort, and, together with her cousin and Ira Drake, a lad of 16, they walked to the McElhammer homestead. The party stood chatting on the doorstep until about 11 o'clock, when Dora began to yawn and said she was going indoors. Farmer took the hint and started for home, leaving young Drake and Dora's cousin whispering on the veranda.

When Farmer had gone a little way down the road he fell in with a lot of young fellows who had also been at the singing school, but were unfortunate enough to have no sweethearts. Bob Farmer, Zan's brother, was among them. The other boys were Joe Henry, Tom Channing, Munro Hawkes, Bob Archer and several smaller boys. Somebody asked where young Ira Drake was. Zan Farmer said he was still at the McElhammer house. He proposed that they give the young man a fight as he came down the road from the trysting-place.

They all sat down on a log by the roadside to wait for him. Time passed slowly, and the young men became irritable at the delay. Each of them at one time or another had had a grievance against young Drake for "spoiling their fun." The boy followed his sister, who is the belle of the county, like a watch-dog, and it was almost impossible for the young men of the neighborhood to have a minute alone with her.

All these things were talked over by the young ruffians, and as they sat there piling up their grudges against the boy and planning to have revenge on him, Ira had slipped past them and gone on his way toward home. It was pitch dark and no one saw him pass. Neither did they hear his footsteps, but a minute later Drake began to whistle, evidently being oppressed by a sense of loneliness. The men sitting on the log began to curse their own stupidity for allowing him to slip past them. Suddenly Zan Farmer jumped up, and with an oath told the others to keep quiet. "I'll cook him yet," he said. "You fellows stay here."

Zan started across lots, and two minutes later the men on the log heard two pistol shots in rapid succession. There was no cry, no sound of a scuffle. Everything was perfectly still again, until they caught the sound of Farmer's footsteps running toward them. He came up breathless and panting. "O, Lord!" he cried, dropping on the ground and rolling with laughter, "I scared the kid to death almost. You fellows ought to have been there to see the fun. I made him tear up the dirt."

Just below the spot where the men were sitting the road turns abruptly to the right. By running across lots Zan had caught up with young Drake just as he turned the corner.

At 10 o'clock last Monday morning old Mr. Drake, Ira's father, started out to look for his missing boy. He fairly stumbled over the dead body. It lay all huddled up in a mud puddle in the middle of the road, just where the boy had fallen when Zan Farmer fired the two shots. The head rested in a pool of blood. There were two bullet holes in his forehead.

The old man picked his boy's body up and carried it back to his house. The news spread rapidly through the country. Parties of men started out in search of the murderer. Over 300 men, women and children attended the funeral that night and then broke up into searching parties. The next morning Zan Farmer was arrested on suspicion. He was locked up in the Suddeth house that day and the next night, and word was sent to Jefferson for a deputy sheriff.

At 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning the drive to Jefferson was begun. Zan was perfectly docile and expressed his willingness to go. The road to Jefferson led past the Farmer homestead. Zan's old grandmother, his stepmother and all her children stood on the doorstep as the carriage drove up. All of them were crying bitterly.

Zan's grandmother tottered down the steps and begged the deputy sheriff to let her kiss "her boy" before he took him away. The sheriff was touched, and told her that she might do so. A whispered conversation took place between them hurriedly, and then the entire family insisted on kissing Zan. Suddenly Grandmother Farmer began to shriek "They are taking the boy away from us in his week day clothes."

After she had calmed down a little she drew the sheriff to one side. "His Sunday clothes is all brushed and ready for him," she pleaded. "Won't you just let the lad go in and put them on?" The deputy sheriff hesitated, but finally said: "All right, but don't be long about it."

Zan, guarded by one of the sheriff's men, was then allowed to enter the house. The deputy and his other men waited. Fifteen minutes passed. They began to grow impatient and ordered Farmer to "hurry up." Suddenly the sheriff heard a horse galloping across the meadows behind Farmer's house.

The man on the horse's back was whipping it furiously. He was Farmer and he was riding for his life. The sheriff sprang on a horse intending to pursue the fleeing criminal, but as he turned around he looked into the muzzles of four revolvers in the hands of Zan's old chums. He was completely in their power.

They bound him and his two companions and locked them in a room in the house. The deputy sheriff who escorted Zan into the house was bound and lying in a corner of the same room. He had been overpowered and gagged the instant he entered Farmer's bedroom. The women of the Farmer household released the deputy sheriffs after two hours, by which time Farmer had escaped on a train to Augusta, and his companions had taken to the woods.

The latter were captured subsequently, but were released for lack of evidence, they having been masked at the time of Farmer's escape. Nobody in the county has laid eyes on Farmer from that day to this, when Sheriff Collyer took him in charge at the Tombs police court. Farmer walked into the Leonard street police station in this city last Saturday night and, dropping into a seat, exhausted, hungry and haunted, told the story of the crime and said he wanted to be sent back to Jefferson, Ga., to stand trial. He qualified this statement to-day by saying he was innocent, but wanted to get back home in order that he might be cleared.

ANOTHER CABINET OFFICER.

Resolutions Favoring a Department of Commerce and Trade.

Boston, March 30.—Members of the executive council of the Massachusetts board of trade held a special meeting last evening. A. W. Strauss, for the Paint and Oil Club of New England, presented resolutions to the following effect, which were adopted: That it is highly important that a new department, to be known as the department of commerce and trade, shall be established by the congress of the United States, and that a new cabinet office be created, the secretary of which will be its representative, and to whom all matters affecting commerce and trade shall be referred.

Resolved, That in the interest of administration economy all cabinet officers shall be entitled to seats on the floor of the national house of representatives without voting power.

FOSTORIA ITEMS.

Fostoria, O., March 30.—(Special)—Last night John Gross was taken to the station house suffering with delerium tremens. He would have been taken to the county infirmary this morning, but death relieved him during the night.

Secretary Foster presented Norris post with 62 volumes of the official record of the rebellion, as compiled by the war department.

PORTER BACK TO ROME.

Such is Believed to be on the Slate.

This Country to Pay Italy a Hundred Thousand Francs for the New Orleans Dead.

New York, March 30.—An Indianapolis special to the Tribune says the friends of ex-Gov. Porter have reason to believe he will return in a short time to his post in Rome as United States minister to Italy. News received in Indianapolis from Washington indicates that the administration is willing to pay to the relatives of the men murdered by the New Orleans mob the sum of 100,000 francs as indemnity.

The payment of this sum, it is understood, is to be accompanied by a declaration which will make it plain to the government of Italy that this act on the part of the United States is in no wise to be considered as an acknowledgement of its obligation or liability for the failure of the local authorities to protect the lives of Italian citizens, but as an evidence, rather, of the good will and friendliness of feeling which has always characterized the relations of this government with that of Italy.

It is understood that congress will not be asked to appropriate the money, but that the contingent fund of the state department is to be drawn upon. This will save time and enable the administration to act promptly in the matter.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, Association of Acting Assisting Surgeons of the U. S. army, writes:

"Salem, Mass., March 23, 1891.

"When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, which seemed to threaten pneumonia. I met, at the Hotel Marquardt, Commander Beardslee, of the United States navy. In speaking of my sickness, he remarked: 'Doctor, you can cure that chest trouble of yours by using an Allcock's Porous Plaster.' 'That may be true,' I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart. Whenever I have a cold I always use one and find relief.' I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friend had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The Allcock's Plaster is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly, will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an Allcock's Plaster as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tea, or milk, will aid in the treatment.

"This is not a patent remedy in the objectionable sense of that term, but a standard preparation of value. The government supplies for the U. S. army and Indian Hospital stores contain Allcock's Pasters, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

Palocio Making Favor With His People.

He Wants No More Office and His Latest Manifesto is Filled with Nothing But Patriotism.

New York, March 30.—Caracas, Venezuela, advices to the Herald under date of March 18, say that President Palacio has issued a manifesto to the states of the republic sustaining his contention in the parliamentary struggle.

He declares that he would not accept another term as president, denounces his opponents in the congress and singles out Gen. Crespo for especial denunciation. The manifesto is filled with patriotic sentiments.

Death of the "Oldest" Kentuckian, Whose Descendants Number 150.

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—William Kennedy, aged 106 years, died at his home near Marion last night. He was born near where he died, and was probably the oldest native Kentuckian. He served in the war of 1812 and was drawing a pension for that service. He was married four times, and his descendants number 150, nearly all living near him. He could, up to the time of his last illness walk a mile without fatigue, and was fond of relating incidents of his early life, of which he retained distinct memories.

One of the Victims Boiled Alive.

A Horrible Discovery of Crime on the German-Russian Frontier That Out-Does the Benders.

Warsaw, March 30.—Police inquiries into the case of two brothers named Koulikvosky, imprisoned here on the charge of murdering and robbing a peasant near the town of Bielostock, revealed the practice of the wholesale murder of emigrants on the frontier.

Already the naked bodies of five victims have been discovered in the snow in the woods adjacent to the house occupied by the Koulikvoskys, who lived in the village of Monki, and the search for bodies is proceeding.

There have been many disappearances of late in the neighborhood of Koulikvosky's residence, and the police estimate that the two brothers have murdered at least forty persons. The residents of Monki have been greatly startled by the revelations concerning the brothers, and there is much excitement throughout the whole district. The elder brother, who was a peasant farmer, has a young wife, who, it is charged, took advantage of her sex to abet her husband in his crimes, receiving her share of the spoils secured from the unfortunate victims.

The younger brother had been a soldier in the Russian army, but his time had expired. He took to smuggling across the frontier as a means of livelihood, and naturally became thoroughly acquainted with all the devious paths that led into Prussian territory away from the eyes of the watchful frontier guards. Many of the persons desirous of leaving Russia, particularly emigrants, were not supplied with the passports required by the government before Russians are allowed to leave their country, and in them the brothers found their victims.

These persons would approach the Koulikvoskys and bargain with them for a safe conduct beyond Russian soil, and with his knowledge of the frontier it was a comparatively easy undertaking for the younger brother to get them safely away from Russian territory. Fugitives from justice also availed themselves of Koulikvosky's knowledge to escape from the officers of the law. The methods followed by the brothers in the case of persons desiring to cross the frontier was as follows:

They would select as their victims only those who had good outfits and money. The others would be taken across in safety. The victims, however, would be taken in charge by the younger brother, and singly they would be conducted along a narrow path through a dense forest. In the meantime the elder brother would hurry by a short route to a spot previously agreed on, and when the victim approached he would be attacked by his guide and the man who laid in ambush. The unfortunate man would be strangled, and to make their work sure the brothers would beat in his skull with clubs. He would then be robbed of everything in his possession.

At the outset the brothers carefully burned the bodies, but as time went by, they, being undetected, became careless, and shoved the bodies under the brushwood after stripping them. But this was not the only way they had of killing their victims.

The wife of the elder engaged in flirtation with strangers who came to Monki, and would make engagements for them to visit her at her home. She is a comely, buxom woman, and her admirers would hasten at night to her house, only to meet death at the hands of the husband and brother who waited their coming.

Among the last of Koulikvosky's victims was a peasant who sought shelter from inclement weather in their hut. He fell asleep, and the brothers attempted to strangle him. The man awoke and made a desperate struggle for his life, as his body showed. While he was held so that he could not escape, boiling water was poured over his head and face, and the murderers then succeeded in strangling him. The body was hidden beneath some straw in a stable, where it was discovered before the brothers had had time to carry it to the forest. The finding of this body led to the discovery of the five other bodies in the woods.

The woman was taken into custody with the men, but she is kept entirely separated from them. All three have been subjected to a prolonged examination, but they refuse to confess anything.

VALUABLE MINING DISCOVERY.

Cheapness and Economy Reached by a New Chemical Process of Treating Ores.

New York, March 30.—Admiral Jasper Henry Selwyn (retired), of the English navy, arrived in this city on the Majestic last week and is at the Everett house.

Since his retirement from active service Admiral Selwyn has devoted himself to scientific studies and has made several valuable discoveries. Among them is a process for separating ores from the rocks in which they are imbedded at a greatly reduced expense and at a minimum loss of metals involved.

The rock is crushed as in other processes, but not so fine, and the separation is effected by treating it with a solution of bichloride of sulphur in a bath of salt solution.

Another of his discoveries is that electricity is transmitted by rays of light, and this he calls the missing link in the correlation of forces.

The mechanism he employs to demonstrate this is very simple.

Between two instruments, one charged with electricity and the other not charged, he places a candle. The lighting of the candle instantly charges the second instrument.

From this fact he infers that electricity is transmitted to the sun from the earth and other planets on the rays of light and thus replenishes the force given off in light.

Admiral Selwyn is also engaged on the problem of producing a fluid fuel by utilizing the nitrogen in the atmosphere. He will sail on Saturday for Mexico, where he will remain until May to introduce his process in the mining operations of that country. Afterward he will visit the mining states in the western part of this country.

having 30 on her limbs, and being unable to walk. I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and bought a bottle, half of which cured entirely. Two years after, another child was afflicted as badly. I used the other half bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla with like results. About four years after, the child first afflicted was again tormented like Job, and I bought a bottle (on Sunday at that) and again a cure. I gave some of the medicine to a poor woman and two children; they were helped as were mine. Through a testimonial sent to C. I. Hood & Co., inquiries came from all the country, asking if it was a 'bona fide' testimonial, and of course I wrote all that it was, and have the knowledge of

MORE ACRE PROPERTY

Disposed of To Be Platted Into City Lots.

Toledo real estate is certainly moving in a lively and most substantial manner.

A deal has just been closed, whereby a syndicate purchased 20 acres of land on Dorr street of David Robison and John Clarke. The consideration was $45,000. The property adjoins the Michigan Central tracks and will be platted and improved at once.

LAST OF THE SERIES

Of Historical lectures at the Y. M. C. A. by Rev. W. H. Sloan.

Association hall saw one of the largest gatherings of the season, last evening, on the occasion of a lecture on Luther and the reformation, by Rev. W. H. Sloan, which closed the series of Y. M. C. A. historical lectures. The course has been very popular, and next season another one will probably be arranged on a still broader scale.

WABASH SHOPS SHUT DOWN

To Cut Down Expenses and the Men Claim It an Injustice.

The Wabash railroad shops are shut down. The employes were notified last evening that their services would not be needed until Friday morning.

The men are greatly dissatisfied with this proceeding, and many of them will leave the shops as soon as they can find employment elsewhere. Said an employe to a Bee:

"We cut us down to eight hours a day and then closed down entirely for two days in a month, so you can see that we are running on about half-time. A man can scarcely earn a living at this rate. Then, if we are a minute late to work we are laid off an hour. Well, with eight hours a day, two days off in a month and an hour knocked off here and there, a job at the Wabash is a pretty hard row to hoe."

FALKA THIS EVENING.

The Wilburs at Wheeler's—Good Music and Large Audiences.

This evening the Wilbur Opera company will present Falka at Wheeler's with the following cast:

Folbach, military governor of Moulgratz, H. W. Tredenick.

Arthur, son of a rich Hungarian farmer, J. E. Conly.

Edwidge, sister of Boleslas, Dorothy Morton.

Mina, her maid, Ethel Balch.

The Seneschal, Folbach's steward, J. Clarence Harvey.

Konrad, captain of the pages, Belle Hamilton.

Tekeli, sergeant of the patrol, S. A. Leggett.

To-morrow afternoon and evening the Beggar Student will be given.

GETTING READY

A meeting of the Immaculate Conception parish was held in Crowe's hall to perfect arrangements for the laying of the corner stone to their new church on May 1, and upon that occasion to receive the new bishop of the diocese, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Horstmann, who will make his first pastoral and official visit to Toledo to officiate at the ceremony.

The following committees were appointed:

On Invitation—Rev. T. P. McCarthy, J. C. Phelan, John Downey, J. M. Burns.

On Decoration—J. L. Burns, P. Cristy, John Dillon, Geo. O'Toole, P. Fitzpatrick.

On Finance—James Lawless, Daniel O'Hara, J. C. Phelan, John Dillon, J. M. Burns.

On Press—Daniel O'Hara, John Downey, Geo. O'Toole, J. M. Burns.

On Line of March—John O'Grady, J. M. Gorman, M. Walsh, John Noonan, Geo. O'Toole.

All Catholic societies of this city together with those from neighboring towns will participate. The city and county officials will be invited to be present. It is expected to be the greatest religious event ever see in the city.

UNJUST REFLECTIONS

On the Character of Col. Smead—Statement from the Enterprising Citizen.

Toledo has been the home of Col. Isaac D. Smead for the past ten years. Col. Smead is the largest manufacturer of warming and ventilating apparatus in America, patentee of the Smead system of warming and ventilating, and was, previous to 10 years ago, for 15 years connected with the Ruttan Manufacturing company, Chicago.

In an interview with the Bee Col. Smead said he had entire confidence in the testimony given by Otis Jones, the former president of the Ruttan company, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Haslett, concerning the board of education officials; that Mr. Jones told him of the transaction about the time it occurred, and Jones' statement was confirmed by Goodrich, who before the grand jury now so flatly contradicted all the testimony given by Jones.

Speaking further, Col. Smead states that he has not had for 10 years any connection with the Chicago company, although it now bears his name and has for past two years used and now sells apparatus manufactured by him, but has sold no Smead apparatus to the Chicago board. The Smead system has been used in Toledo for 10 years and no other system is used in any of the 30 or more schools here. The apparatus costs about $250 per room, while the steam system used in Chicago schools costs over $1,000 per room. Mr. Bailey has told him a dozen times that the reason why he does not sell the Chicago board is because he will not become a party to the methods in vogue there.

MANAGER J. W. CHERRY

Is Given a Surprise by the Young Ladies of the Exchange.

Mr. J. W. Cherry, the genial manager of the Telephone Exchange, who is about to depart to Indianapolis to assume a similar position, was given a farewell surprise last evening by a score of young ladies who sweetly murmur "Hello" to the public over the wires. They called at his home on Vermont avenue with the necessaries for a good time, and also had a beautiful combination book case and desk for presentation. The young ladies took possession of things and a grand time was had.

THE RAILROAD MEN

Did Not Do Much at Their Meeting Yesterday.

There were a large number of railroad officials in the city yesterday attending the meeting of the lime committee of the Central Traffic association, and the Toledo passenger committee. The lime committee did nothing on account of the absence of the representative of one of the leading lines interested, and adjourned indefinitely. The passenger committee made a rate of one fare for the round trip to Toledo on the occasion of the meeting of the National Association of Commercial Travelers, May 27 and 28, subject to the action of the Central Traffic association.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

The Clerks M. P. U. Has a Good Time—Painters' Union.

The regular meeting of the Clerks M. P. union in Elks' hall last evening was a little varied from the usual program. The meeting was addressed by R. J. Booth, president of the Central Labor union, and Alonzo O'Reilly of the Pavers' union. Later, refreshments were served, some musical numbers rendered, and a general good time had. No business of importance was transacted.

At the regular meeting of the Painters' union last night, the report of the delegates to the Building Trades council was heard. It is not likely this union will again send representatives to the council until the troubles there are settled.

PROF. VINCENT

Lectures on Robert Burns at Ashland Avenue Baptist Church.

Prof. Leon H. Vincent delivered another of his excellent lectures on literature at the Ashland Avenue Baptist church last evening, under the auspices of the Smead seminary. His subject was Robert Burns, and a large audience enjoyed a rare treat. Prof. Vincent's talk was principally on the life and manners of the great Scotch poet rather than a criticism of his works. He told how the bard lived and worked, how he was honored and feted yet was continually pursued by poverty and died a poor man.

Prof. Vincent will lecture again this evening on that eccentric writer, Percy Bysshe Shelley.

STEALING FROM THE DEAD.

A Woman Who Never Had a Ribbon Takes Some from a Grave.

Mrs. Ellen Heisen, of Champlain street, was fined $15 and costs in the police court this morning for stealing ribbons from the doll houses on the children's graves in the cemetery. She is a poor woman who has had none of the pleasures or comforts of life, half clothed, half fed, living in a desolate, forsaken home. She had never in all her life, a ribbon, and the temptation to take a few of the old soiled pieces was too strong to resist. Such cases can not help but to aweken a feeling of pity for those who have so little happiness in this world and should make the discontented ones who have plenty to eat, drink and wear feel thankful that their lot is not a poorer one.

TOLEDO YARDMASTERS

Elect Wm. Kirkby President of the Local Division.

Last evening the Toledo division of the Yardmasters' association held a meeting and elected officers. Wm. Kirkby, the new state railroad commissioner, was elected president. N. G. Gallette of the Lake Shore, secretary; Jerry Daly of the Lake Shore, treasurer. John Daly and N. G. Gallette were elected delegates to the national convention of yardmasters at Lincoln, Neb., June 8, and James Fanning and M. J. Clark were elected alternates.

A resolution was passed as follows:

"To Governor McKinley:

"We, the undersigned members of Division No. 6, Railway Yardmasters of Toledo, return to you our most sincere thanks for the honor you have conferred on our division by placing the president of our division, Mr. William Kirkby, in the very responsible position of railroad commissioner for the state of Ohio.

"N. G. Gallette, L. S. & M. S. railroad; Jerry Daly, L. S. & M. S.; Wm. Fitzgerald, L. S. & M. S.; Ed Clarke, Wabash, M. J. Clarke, T. & O. C.; Wm. Hislop, L. S. & M. S.; John Daly, C., H. & D.; Frank Doan, C., H. & D.; J. G. Parcher, L. S. & M. S.; Frank Dwight, Wabash; J. J. Fanning, C., H. & D.; Bowers, Pennsylvania; James Fagan, Wabash; W. C. Raymer, L. TURLEY—JOHNSON.

A Happy Couple United in Wedlock Under Favorable Circumstances.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Turley on Oakwood avenue, when their daughter, Miss Ella J., was united in marriage with Mr. Fred T. Johnson, son of Squire Johnson, of Adams township. The parlors were bedecked in rare flowers and the mantel was a bower of beauty with potted plants, ferns, etc.

Promptly at 5:30 the wedding party, composed of Miss Turley, assisted by Miss Hattie Johnson, sister of the groom, and Mr. Johnson, accompanied by Mr. Ernst Shaffmaster, cousin of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Turley, walked slowly to the front parlor under the floral lovers' knot, while Miss Florence Johnson played the Wedding March on the piano. Rev. W. C. Hopkins then performed the ceremony, which was the Episcopal service with ring, in an impressive manner.

The bride was attired becomingly in white creponne, en train, pearl trimmings, and carried bridal roses. The bridesmaid was handsome in steel gray, en train, with cut steel trimmings, pink roses in hand. Mrs. Turley wore a suit of black silk, with vest of corn-colored crepe dechene.

Following the tying of the knot, the couple received the congratulations of the entire company, and many were the good wishes expressed for future happiness. An elegant wedding supper was served. At 8 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for a trip to Chicago, and will on their return take up their residence in a new home now being prepared.

Among the guests from out of the city were Mrs. Fred Shaffmaster, of Bronson, Mich., and Miss Aggie Goudy, of Coldwater. The popularity of the young couple was attested by the numerous and costly presents received.

We have received our full line of the celebrated Stuttgart Sanitary Wool Underwear in spring and summer weights, in union suits and separate garments. Be sure to see these goods.

The Gerrymandering Crowd Are As Far from an Agreement as They Ever Were—Columbus Chat.

Columbus, March 30.—The joint conference committee held another meeting last night and arrived at a partial decision, which is equally as unsatisfactory as the bill in the form that it passed the house.

The decision arrived at makes the following changes in the districts indicated:

Third district—Preble, Miami and Montgomery. Republican majority, 609.

Seventh district—Champaign, Clarke, Green, Warren and Butler. Republican majority, 2,009.

Sixth district—Madison, Fayette, Clinton, Highland.

Clermont and Brown—Republican majority, 1,916.

In addition to these changes, Marion county is taken from the Thirteenth and put in the Eighth district, which is heavily democratic.

The committee will submit reports embodying these changes to-morrow afternoon.

The report arrived at, however, was not unanimously indorsed. Representative Ely, of Fulton, and Clark, of Cuyahoga, refused to sign the report.

It will be remembered that the conference committee consisted of three members on part of house and three on part of the senate. The refusal of Representatives Ely and Clark to sign the report leaves but one member of the committee on the part of the house whose signature is attached to it, and therefore, his report, according to the opinions of several of the most eminent parliamentarians cannot be legally agreed to by that body.

The situation in regard to the congressional redistricting bill is therefore practically unchanged.

New Secretary of State.

Governor McKinley this morning appointed C. L. Poorman, of Belmont county, secretary of state vice D. J. Ryan, resigned.

Mr. Ryan's resignation will probably take effect the middle of April, but may not until May 1.

Ballot Law.

The senate yesterday passed the following bills which are now laws, and the provisions were published in the Bee last Saturday:

Mr. Fisher, of Preble—Providing that the form of ticket to be used in township elections shall be the same as prescribed by law before the enactment of the Australian ballot system.

Mr. Fisher, of Preble—Providing formalities for the election of a representative in Medina county to succeed the late Henry W. Camp, and an additional common pleas judge in the First subdivision of the Eighth judicial district.

Mr. Winn—Providing for the election of township assessors under the old law.

Mr. Lampson—Re-enacting section 1442 of the statutes so as to provide for township elections.

Columbus Notes.

The bill giving jurors on dollar per day in police courts, introduced by Mr. James, has passed the house.

The house finance committee bill, appropriating nearly $3,000 to pay damages to farmers in the vicinity of the Mercer county reservoir, caused by the overflow, passed the house this morning.

The Cleveland delegation in the legislature is happy over the passage of the Bloch bill repealing the law enacted regulating the hours of employment of firemen in that city. The passage of the first bill met fierce opposition through indignation meetings, hence its repeal.

Notes.

If the bill introduced yesterday afternoon by Senator McConica should become a law taxes will be limited in cities of the third grade and second class to ten mills.

Senator Stewart introduced in the senate yesterday afternoon a bill providing that in cases of damages notice of suit shall be given in 60 days.

If the bill introduced to amend section 3148 by Senator McConica becomes a law, persons who repair or equip gas wells will have a lien on them until paid for all services rendered.

Senate bill by Mr. Phillips amending section 1181 so that all county surveying and engineering shall be given to the county surveyors in all counties except Hamilton was passed in the house yesterday afternoon after considerable discussion and bein amended so as to exempt Cuyahoga county.

The Hale bill authorizing mine and quarry operators to cross roads was passed in the house yesterday afternoon. The bill provides that with the consent of the county commissioners any public road may be crossed by owners of adjoining lands, but must give sufficient bond that they will place the road in good condition again.

The senate yesterday afternoon passed house bill by Taylor, of Champaign, increasing the salary of the executive officer of the Ohio world's fair commissioner to $4,000; appropriating $45,000 for immediate expenses, and authorizing the erection of a sculptural design of Ohio statesmen at a cost of $25,000.

Senator McMaken yesterday afternoon introduced a bill to repeal Garber salary bill as it applies to county clerks, and giving them the fees collected under the bill and now turned into the county treasury.

The 99-year street railroad bill will come up in the senate to-morrow. Attorney General Richards has issued a letter explaining the technical legal points of the Rawlings bill.

The senate has passed the McCoy bill providing for a commission to select a site for the new insane asylum in the eastern part of the state and not within 100 miles of any other insane asylum.

The house has passed Mr. James' bill authorizing West Millgrove, Wood county, to issue $7,000 in bonds to erect a new school building.

The house has adopted Mr. Griffin's resolution relative to the employment of convict labor in the penitentiary.

Mr. Van Cleaf's bill reducing the fee of contributing members of military companies, from $5 to $3 was defeated in the house.

The Columbus liquor bill consideration was postponed until next Tuesday. The Sherman following expect to have Mr. Griffin placed by that time.

INSANE WOMAN'S DEED.

St. Genevieve, Mo., March 30.—Mrs. William Byington, of this county, has been arrested for murdering her five year old stepson by crushing his head with a bootjack and attempting to conceal the horrible crime by burning the body. The woman has confessed the deed. She is believed to be insane.

The R. R. Ladies' Aid society wish to tender their thanks to all those who so kindly assisted them at their entertainment last Wednesday evening. It was a success and enjoyed by all.

Washington liquor license may be raised from $100 to $600.

In Colorado the Southern Pacific railroad is ballasted for some distance with rock salt.

All telephone lines in Belgium will be placed under the control of the government at the close of the present year.

The Everett (Wash.) Herald claims a population of 2,000 for that four-months-old town. New buildings planned will cost $1,500,000.

Wages are so low in India that men may be hired for $2 a month to do household work. A dollar is a great sum to them and one meal a day the rule.

The young people of the Monroe Street M. E. church, will give a musicale in the church on Wednesday evening. They will be assisted by Mr. Percival Golud, violinist, and George Mills, elocutionist, with songs by Mr. Permar, Mr. Shriver and the Broadway male quartet.

PLACED IN HIS TOMB.

Remains of Walt Whitman Now at Rest.

No Minister at the Funeral Services.

Robert Ingersoll Made a Touching and Eloquent Address to the Assembled People.

Camden, N. J., March 30.—Between 11 o'clock this morning and 1 o'clock this afternoon several thousand people viewed the body of Walt Whitman. The "good gray poet" looked as natural as in life and those of his friends who had not been able to see him during his last illness were pleased to find his face as calm and placid as if he had just lain down to sleep.

Among the friends and admirers of the late poet present were: Gorge W. Childs, Julian Hawthorne, Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Horace Howard Furness, Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, John Burroughs, J. H. Johnston, Lincoln L. Eyre, J. H. Stoddart, Francis Howard Williams, Talcott Williams, Dr. R. M. Buck, Thomas B. Harned, Horace S. Traubel, Judge Charles Garrison, H. L. Bonsall, Rev. J. H. Clifford, Harrison S. Morris, Herbert H. Gilders, H. D. Bush, Julius Chambers, Thomas Eakins, A. G. Cattell and Edmund Clarence Stedman.

At 2 o'clock the body was taken to Harleigh cemetery, in the outskirts of Camden, and a public funeral service held. As Whitman himself had wished, no clergyman participated in the exercises. The service was begun with the reading of the Scriptures and the dead poet's works by Francis Howard Williams, of Philadelphia.

Addresses were then made by Thomas B. Harned, of Camden; Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, of Philadelphia, and Dr. R. M. Buck, of London, Ont., the friend an biographer of Whitman.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll made the concluding address, which was an eloquent eulogium of the dead poet's life and works and his service to the cause of demo racy.

The body was then consigned to the tomb which was constructed under Whitman's directions three years ago.

Vote for a radical change in council methods. Vote for reform. Vote out the republicans and vote in the democrats. Any change from present methods will be an improvement.

Already the republicans call the Hon. Charles Perseverence Griffin "Governor," and the indications are that he intends to jump clear over congress a year hence and displace Major McKinley in the Executive office. Great Scott, how big was Alexander, Pa?

An esteemed evening contemporary printed an excellent cut of Billy Capellar yesterday, and labeled it Billy Kirkby by mistake. But that was all right, as the only difference between the men is that one was, and the other is to be, railroad commissioner of Ohio.

When democratic leaders appear in the role of cloture what is to become of the capital produced by the force bill fight?—Washington Post.

By this time Editor Hatton knows, and no doubt rejoices to know, that the democratic leaders have refused the role, and consequently retain their capital well-earned in fighting gag laws of all sorts.

The German Express opposes Hon. John H. Puck for police commissioner because he is a law and order citizen. The inference is that Mr. Puck's opponent, Doville, is not a law and order citizen. The Blade also supports Doville. Why? Which of the republican organs is carrying water on both shoulders? The voters would like to know. Perhaps the Blade can explain.

The question is again raised of changing the hours for High School pupils, so that there shall be only one daily session. The board of education follows the sensible course of asking the parents of such pupils to vote for or against the change. Presumably the majority of these votes will govern the action of the board. In most cities of this grade the one-session rule prevails. Should it be adopted here the noon intermission will be eliminated.

The New York World comments on the late break of the Ohio republican state committee on the temporary chairmanship of the state convention as follows:

"Of course this only means that Forraker of the Poisoned Hand has got in his work with the committee. If the republicans of Ohio like that sort of committee it is nobody else's business."

Precisely and exactly. And because the Ohio republicans like that sort of thing the Ohio democrats generously rejoice to see they are getting more and more of it.

The resignation of Secretary of State Ryan to accept the position of executive commissioner from Ohio to the world's fair was a genuine surprise. The contest for the place was nip and tuck between Col. Jim Neal, of state reputation, and Mr. T. J. Shead, a leading manufacturer of Defiance. Ryan's name was sprung and he was elected. Mr. Ryan is chock full of energy and progressive ideas, and will undoubtedly work up an Ohio exhibit that will be creditable to the state.

This is what Governor Russell, of Massachusetts, thinks of silver legislation and the cloture which Mr. Bland proposed, but which Speaker Crisp refused to entertain:

I think it unadvisable for congress to pass the silver bill under any circumstances, but especially so under cloture. It is a question that ought to be thoroughly considered with every opportunity for discussion and amendment. I believe the more it is discussed the less likely congress will be to pass the bill. If argument fails to convince, force ought not to be used to coerce.

A correspondent of the Boston Herald, writing from New York, counts up the votes comparatively certain to go to Cleveland on the first ballot in the Chicago convention as 737 out of 900. The correspondent names Boies, Campbell and Vilas for second place candidates, and says: "I am told that Cleveland's personal preference is for Campbell of Ohio, and he means to carry Ohio." This is a good ticket, and as for the program when the ticket is nominated count the Bee in to help carry it out.

A recent statement from the treasury department showed a "cash balance" of $27,000,000. Its debt to the National Bank Note redemption fund is $50,000,000, but this is juggled over so that the misappropriation does not clearly appear. It is fortunate for the Billion Dollar congress that an administration of the party of its majority is in power to cover up the naked result of its extravagance with sophistry and statements embroidered with glittering generalities. Still, as Lincoln said, "You can't fool all the people all the time," and so much the worse for the party that, having robbed them, continues to try to deceive them.

Are we not a little captious in our criticisms of the secret sessions of the senate? These executive sessions are intended to guard the discussions upon diplomatic complications, not so much from our own people as from the foreign powers concerned, and from whom it is highly proper, even necessary, to keep all knowledge of our own course until it is definitely determined upon. The objection to executive sessions for the consideration of nominations is well founded. The public have the right to know all about the candidates and there is no real good reason for withholding the information which is always in the possession of the senate.

The boodler investigation in Chicago has involved a member of the board of education who has associated the Smead heating and ventilating system with the unsavory business in a manner which does great injury to Col. Isaac D. Smead, of Toledo. Col. Smead has had no connection with the Chicago firm for ten years. Their methods are not his methods. Their business is not his business. They bear his honorable name, as eleven heating companies do in the United States, because he has the best warming and ventilating system in the world. They are benefited and honored by his name, but he ought not to be dishonored by the stories which come from Chicago, from the boodler side. The Chicago house claims to be all right, and the presumption is that it is. At any rate Col. Isaac D. Smead is all right and always will be. His character is above reproach.

A synopsis of the vote on the Bland bill last week should put a quietus on the insistent statement of certain papers which would rather make a point than tell the truth, the statement that the republican party is against and the democratic party for free 70-cent silver. The Bland bill was defeated in the house by the 81 democratic votes cast against it, and of the 78 republicans voting in the house that day eleven voted for the bill. The democratic party as a party is not committed to fiatism. That is more apparent to-day than it was a week ago. It will be shown without a shadow of doubt at the Chicago convention. For the double standard, yes—when silver has a fixed and standard value in all the recognized money centers of the world; but, for an under-value dollar, no. That's good hard money doctrine, which the democrats of Ohio fought to success in 1875 and '76, and which was clinched by the St. Louis convention which nominated Samuel J. Tilden for president.

COALING STATION FOR SALE.

The king of the Gilbert islands is about to try and make a dicker with this government. He will offer the harbor of the island of Butaritari to the United States for use as a coaling station, and will agree to keep the harbor in good condition, this government in return to establish a protectorate over the islands which constitute his kingdom.

These islands, of coral formation, lie in the Pacific, on both sides of the equator, between 172 and 174 degrees longitude. They are of small area, the largest, Taputeouea, or Drummond, being only thirty miles long and from one-half to three-quarters wide. The population of the group is about 60,000. Cyclopedic information is to the effect that the people, divided into three classes, chiefs, landholders and slaves, are "fond of war and prone to suicide." It is said they "eat human flesh occasionally," though not habitual cannibals. Not real nice people, taken all in all, to become wards of the United States.

Then, too, they are apt to have several kings at a time, and not pay much attention to any of them. It may be the king who has landed in San Francisco and will go to Washington, could not deliver the goods if the proposed bargain were made. Yet these islands possess several good harbors, and the United States is greatly in need of coaling stations in the Pacific ocean. Here's a chance to take in a kingdom.

Rapid transit, commensurate with the spirit of the age, will yet be provided for. The report concerning the balloon inspection of Russian troops indicates that the difficulties of aerial navigation are being overcome. The proposed electric railroad between St. Louis and Chicago, which will run its trains at 100 miles an hour, is deemed so feasible that capitalists are enlisting in the enterprise. The time is likely to come when the journey across this great continent will be made in a day and night.

Paris is having a bad dose of revolutionary anarchism of late. If the people of the French republic are ready to return to a despotic government they will tolerate and encourage such outrages as that of Sunday. It is the record of history that when life and property are not secure under one form of government another is established.

President Palacio of Venezuela wanted to serve a second term, and ordered the supreme court to find that it was constitutional for him to do so. The court could not find warrant for such ruling, and the president has locked his judges up. He will now try to play a lone hand, and revolution may follow.

"A permanent circus in New York," is a new business enterprise in the eastern metropolis. There was altogether too much circus in New York before.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Standard Oil trust announces officially that it is dead. Still it may be just as well to wait awhile before pronouncing the funeral oration.—New York Press.

The United States senate still deliberates in secret and its secrets are given to the public. Some of the senators leak and then make scapegoats of innocent employes.—Detriot Free Press.

A religious fanatic in Detroit declares he can get money by rubbing his hands together. Dollars to doughnuts a Chicago alderman can beat him hands down at his own game.—Chicago Mail.

If the democrats win in Rhode Island in the coming election it will be an admission that even the smallest state in the union is too big to be worn as a pendant to the watch-chain of a republican boss.—Philadelphia Times.

Mr. McKinley, who was a candidate for chairman of the coming republican state convention in Ohio, has been tricked by Forraker's friends. Mr. McKinley is a piece of raw material in need of protection.—St. Louis Republic.

Pension Commissioner Raum does not undertake to deny that he went into Congressman Cooper's district in Indiana at the last election and used his influence as a pension distributor to secure that gentleman's defeat.—Boston Herald.

The claims that have been filed in consequence of the attack on the sailors of the Baltimore at Valparaiso are calculated to give the Chileans a more exalted idea of the value of human life. Thus does the great republic of the north contribute to the education of her southern sisters.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lord Salisbury seems blind to everything but the making of demagogical capital out of playing the jingo. He may find that he has made a serious political mistake. However that may be, the duty of our government is perfectly plain, and it is no small comfort to feel that the country has in the presidential chair a statesman with a head equal to the emergency.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That the Wilburs are doing a big business at Wheeler's this week.

That the open cars are being dusted up preparatory to being placed on the different lines

That an interesting revival meeting is in progress at the Eleventh Street Church of Christ.

That some fine selections of Easter music are being rehearsed by the church choirs.

That it would be glad news to learn that work had commenced on the new Y. M. C. A. building.

That the Ohio fish commission loses a valuable member in the retirement of Judge E. D. Potter.

That the telegram to J. M. Brown gives up the influence surrounding the selection of Mr. Kirkby.

That the Vet Cadets will have a little time of their own at the annual election on Friday night.

That the cemeteries will soon receive their annual beautifying at the hands of the superintendents.

That the expense of holding the spring election in the county will not be as expensive as last fall.

That Theodore Schmitt will be elected from the Second ward, and will make an efficient councilman.

That Bishop Horstman is to have a big reception on his visit to Toledo at the close of next month.

That some heavy real estate deals are being figured on, and will soon be made known to the public.

That the plans for the consolidation of the medical college faculties had not materialized up to the hour of going to press.

That the Pythian Sisters have many candidates on the way, who will be added to greatly as the organization becomes better known.

That at the close of Lent several marriages are to take place among Toledo's young people, some of them in very high social life.

That 'Squire Scott was one of the best justices of the peace Port Lawrence division ever had, and should be returned next Monday.

That Street Commissioner Bower has about 300 men at work on the streets this week, and is looking for more, but they must be voters.

That it was thought that John Guncked would write his name as fish commissioner when a vacancy in the board occurred, but it seems not yet.

That the appointment of Mr. Wm. Kirkby as railroad commissioner puts at rest all expectation of Mayor Emmick picking up the oil inspectorship.

That the government officials seem to be in it decidedly with the present state administration, and candidates for honors may lay their plans accordingly.

That Herman Baumbach will be a candidate before the next council for the infirmary superintendency to be made vacant by the retirement of Bill Kirkby.

That Tim Leroux will be a candidate for president if the next board of aldermen comes his way politically, and even Councilman Albrecht is figuring on the presidency of the lower board.

GARZA IS STILL A POWER.

The Mexican Invasion to be Continued.

Laredo, Tex., March 30.—Rangers scouting in Starr county lately, met three armed Mexicans, supposed to be followers of Garza, who opened fire on them.

A running fight then ensued, when suddenly the rangers were fired on from ambush and one was killed. Those in ambush are reported to have numbered all the way from 10 to 200.

It is rumored that there are indications of more trouble in the lower country.

Mexicans here who claim to know of Garza's plans say that invasions into Mexico will be resumed during next month. United States troops have left for the scene of action.

The outbreak, however, is nothing more than was expected after the troops were withdrawn from that section. Persons thoroughly familiar with the situation declare the Garza movement is more dangerous to-day than at any time since it began.

CAME DOWN IN TORRENTS.

Heavy Rains Reported in the Northwest.

Ten Million Bushels of "Left-Over" Wheat in Red River Valley Reported Lost.

St. Paul, Minn., March 30.—Reports from many North Dakota and northern Minnesota points indicate that it has been raining in torrents from eight to twelve hours. In many places the country is flooded and the roads impassable.

The farmers' hopes that they would be able to thresh their left-over wheat cannot be realized. The grain in shock was ruined by the early March thaws, the later heavy winds and snows filled the stacks to the center with ice and frost, and yesterday's rain so thoroughly soaked them that not a grain of wheat will be saved except for feed.

At least 10,000,000 bushels in the Red River valley must be counted as lost.

ONE LAST ATTEMPT.

Silver Men to Make a Final Charge on the House.

Washington, March 30.—The free coinage advocates have not yet given up the fight in the house of representatives.

The controversy between Mr. Bland and Speaker Crisp was the subject of general comment, and the former announced that he will make no further attempt to secure a decree of cloture from the committee on rules, but Mr. Pierce, of Tennessee, and other leaders in the free coinages movement, have again taken courage and will make one supreme attempt to force the committee on rules to report a rule fixing a day and hour for a final vote on the passage of the bill.

TROUBLE IN BRAZIL.

Another Revolution Breaks Out Against Ewbank.

Buenos Ayres, March 30.—Advices from the state of Matto-Grosso, Brazil, report that a fresh revolution has been started there and that it is headed by Senator Peinhero. The purpose of the insurgents is to depose Gov. Ewbank.

OHIO SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Columbus, March 30.—The supreme court handed down decisions in 14 cases and nine motions this morning. Five of these decisions were in the cases against Thomas Q. Ashburn, trustee of some absorbed little railroad down in Clinton county, in which the judgment of the Clinton county court was upheld. The court also sustained the judgment of the Cuyahoga county court in the two cases of the Bank Street Railway company et al. v. the state ex rel. Prosecuting Attorney Hadden. The question involved in these cases was raised by residents of the East End who desired to get the street cars off Euclid avenue, and for an excuse trumped up the charge that all the companies which had changed from horse to electric power had violated their corporate rights, and should therefore be ousted. The court overruled the motion to advance the cases concerning the agricultural experiment station in Wayne county.

FUND TO CONVICT BOODLERS.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—Citizens have raised a fund with which to prosecute city officials believed to be guilty of bribery in connection with letting public contracts, and the investigation of the alleged boodlers will now be pushed with vigor.

THE SPRING CAMPAIGN.

George W. Leibius the Nominee for Police Clerk

On the Democratic Ticket—Who He Is—Some of the Gentlemen Presented for the Suffrages of the People.

Geo. W. Leibius, the democratic nominee for police clerk, is one of the best known and most popular young men of Toledo. He was born at Archibald, O., in 1859, and removed to Toledo with his parents, when four years of age. He has lived here ever since. After leaving the high school, Mr. Leibius entered the employ of Fuller, Childs & Co., where he remained six years, until he went into the tailoring business for himself. He conducted the business for some six or seven years and then went with Joe Zeigler, with whom he remained until recently. Mr. Leibius is a member of the National Union, the Toledo lodge of Elks, the Ohio Yacht club and is an ex-cadet. He has a good business head, is a pleasant and agreeable gentleman to meet, and has an excellent tenor voice that has made for him many friends in the various organizations in the city. The young men of both parties are with him, and the old heads will fall into line. Mr. Leibius will make the most conscientious and most efficient police clerk Toledo has ever had.

Col. J. H. Puck, who is the democratic nominee for police commissioner, has been engaged in business in Toledo since 1870, and his organization, the Western Manufacturing company, has been one of the steady-going institutions of the city. From 60 to 75 men are employed the year round, and the roll includes the working classes of all trades. A man has never been asked to what church, party or society he belongs. Mr. Puck went into the Union army and served during the whole of the war to gain for the people liberty, and he would be the last man to proscribe others for their belief. Vote for John H. Puck by all means.

Councilman Walker is a candidate for re-election in the Eighth ward, and deserves cordial support. He has been efficient in all his work, and no interest of the ward has lagged. With Mr. Walker re-elected, the Eighth will have a splendid representative. Arion E. Wilson will also be a worthy successor to Mr. Opitz in the school board, having the intelligence and wisdom to make himself one of the best kind of members.

Hon. Charles Zirwas has been connected with the public schools of Toledo for more than a decade. His time and talents have been freely given gratuitously. When such men accept duties of this character unanimous election should follow, and undoubtedly Mr. Zirwas will be returned from the Fourth practically by acclamation.

Sylvester Lamb is a gentleman who enjoys the respect of all citizens. As alderman from the Third ward he would be a valuable acquisition to the municipal government. What is true of Mr. Lamb is equally so of Mr. Simonds, his running mate for the council. Their election is needed at this time.

Fred Wolfman is the candidate for alderman and Tony Bay for councilman in the Ninth. The ward is close usually, but with two such excellent gentlemen on the ticket, the voters will see to it that the little Ninth is safely marked in the democratic column.

In the Seventh ward the republican candidates are having a time of it. George Roulet will find W. R. Hodge too much for him, and Mr. Albrecht has already discovered that his course in the council is not approved. John Felker will succeed him.

The Fifth ward democratic caucus presented Alderman Graham and Councilman Coleman for re-election. The city has had the benefit of the services of these gentlemen, and will continue them in the two boards. The old Fifth owes it to herself to stand by her democratic colors.

Charles I. Scott scarcely needs recommendation to the voters for justice of the peace. He has been in Toledo and walked up and down its streets for a quarter of a century without blemish on his character. Vote for him.

The nominees for assessors made by the democrats are all first-class. This office is an important one, and the best material obtainable is needed. Taxpayers will consult their own interests by electing the democratic selections.

Louis Steuer is developing strength in his race for the street commissionership. He has been a practical man during all of his years, and there is no doubt but what he would prove a great improvement over Bower, his competitor.

Capt. J. H. Spain was a good soldier, a good councilman and a painstaking government officer. He has all the qualities for an efficient justice of the peace. Honor a worthy man by making his majority a large one.

Sanford Cook and Dr. Hathaway have been named by the democrats of the Sixth ward for the council and school board. Better selections would be hard to discover. See that they are elected by a round majority.

The Polish voters have a strong representative on the democratic city ticket for constable, Mr. John Kani. That he is a good man for the office is attested by his friends in all parts of the city.

George B. Hull is a prominent business man of Toledo, and as a water works trustee would utilize his ability to assist in running the department wisely and well. Vote for George Hull.

Tom Rooney is a printer and therefore qualified to make a careful justice of the peace. Workingmen should give him a solid vote, as well should voters in general.

John Daily was one of the best representatives the Fourth ward ever had in the council. Return him over Morgenthaler.

Theodore Schmitt and Sam Kohn appear to have the field to themselves in the Second ward. Both are excellent citizens.

Fred Schulty and Rudolph Mathias are a winning team in the First ward for the council. Vote for them.

THE BEE INQUIRY BOX.

Does Spencer Oppose Woman Suffrage?

It is a matter of dispute in one of the women's clubs in Toledo whether Herbert Spencer, in "Justice," does not declare against equal suffrage for women. Will the Bee quote his language on this subject?—Mrs. L.

In the chapter on "Justice" entitled "The Rights of Women," section 91, Spencer says: "Citizenship does not include only the giving of votes, joined now and again with the fulfillment of representative functions. It includes, also, certain serious responsibilities. But if so, there cannot be equality of citizenship unless along with the share of good there goes the share of evil." He concludes that as long as military functions pertain to citizenship, woman's claim to equal "political rights" is not, ethically considered, a just one. But he further says, "It should be added of course this reasons does not negative the claims of woman to equal shares in local governments and administrations."

Jingoism.

Will you gratify a number of readers by stating where the word "jingoism" originated?—Subscriber.

"By jingo," is one of the strange oaths in "Don Quixote," Jarvis' translation. Another early use of the words is in Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield." It was first applied in politics in 1878, in England, to a class of noisy patriots who were demanding war with Russia. This application arose from a catchy song just then popular, the refrain in which was,

We don't want to fight, but, by jingo, if we do,
We've got the ships, we've got the men, and we've got the money, too.

RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA CURED.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SLAVERY IN NEW YORK.

Worse Bondage Than the South Ever Knew.

The Railroad Workmen Shamefully Treated.

Half Clothed, Poorly Fed, and Robbed of the Money They Earned Under Such Circumstances.

Utica, N. Y., March 30.—This city resembles Washington during war times. Its citizens have suddenly awakened to the fact that they must do something at once for the victims of the slavery which exists almost at their doors.

Hundreds of penniless and destitute negroes are camped out in the temporary places of shelter given them, and the citizens and authorities of Utica are consulting as to the best means of returning them to their homes.

All last night and this morning straggling parties of negroes, with some white men, have been coming into town. They are slaves who have escaped from the system of tyranny and compulsion pursued along Dr. Seward Webb's Adirondack railroad, which he insisted upon building through the heart of the wilderness in the depth of winter.

The work can only be performed through deception, and abuse has entailed untold suffering upon the victims, one of whom, after escaping, died at Ogdensburg.

The runaway slaves from the Adirondack railway, within a few miles of the place where John Brown lies buried, are more helpless and destitute than those who flocked to his side at Harper's Ferry.

One hundred and fifty of them have arrived in Utica during the past 24 hours, after walking nearly a hundred miles from the rude camps in the woods, where they were imprisoned. Guards armed with Winchesters patrolled these camps, and when the poor blacks escaped they took their lives in their hands.

It was 48 miles from the camps to the nearest railroad station, and the ground was covered with snow, while the poor escaping negroes had the thinnest of covering to protect them from the chill winter blasts.

Arrived at Lowville, or Boonville, they were penniless, friendless and afraid of the railway agents, who have offices there; so keeping to the woods, they started on the long journey to Utica. At various points in the woods they picked up other parties, and all headed for Utica, trusting to find succor there.

A sort of general revolt against further tyranny and subjection seems to have broken out at the camps last week, for nearly all of the 150 refugees who came here left there since Wednesday last.

Their sufferings during the journey to Utica have been severe, mainly because they had insufficient clothing in the cold winter weather. It must be remembered that they are southern negroes from Tennessee and the Carolinas, unaccustomed to snow or cold. They were induced to come north upon promise of a fine, genial climate, where the thermometer was only two degrees lower than in the sunny south, and they were to work, it was said, within a few miles of New York city. That, however, was only one of the deceptions practised upon them.

But for the timely arrival of the escaped slaves from the Adirondack railway in Utica, 200 more victims who reached this city this morning would now be on their way to the lonely camps. They were stopped just in time, as they were about to take the last stage of the journey, and are here to-night, penniless and helpless, but being taken care of by the city authorities and charitable citizens.

They came from Columbus, Tenn., ragged and shivering, but still hopeful of earning something from the work that had been promised them.

Thomas O'Brien testified that he was engaged for the work by a man named Myers at No. 16 Greenwich street, New York, and that many falsehoods were told him about the wages he would be paid and the way he would live. The snow came into where he slept on straw, and the food, he said, was sickening. He saw one of the bosses knock a laborer down, and when a man attempted to escape from the camp he was followed and brought back. He worked eleven to twelve hours a day for 26 days, and was told last week there was nothing due him. He had never received a cent of money from the company.

Joseph O'Neill, employed by Myers, in New York, saw one man at his camp whose feet had been frost-bitten, and was begging for treatment to prevent his toes dropping off. The men were charged 50 cents each for medical attendance, but no doctor ever visited the camp. Many are sick there now. Myers had told the witness, he said, that the camp was 15 miles from Utica, and that the fare was $5.50, but he was charged on the books $9.35. All the store prices were excessive. He had never received a cent of pay, and had escaped.

John Mulville, also engaged by Myers, testified to the same effect. The night guard at the camp, he said, carried a rifle, and the bosses frequently threatened the men and knocked them down.

John Bell, Henry Bradford, Henry Thomas and Alonzo Carroll, negroes, who came from Birmingham, Ala., and Nashville, Tenn., testified that they had not received a cent of wages, and two of them were in debt at the store when they left. This was the result of the extortionate prices charged. Flour was 15 cents a pound, and a can of corn cost 40 cents. Everything else was in proportion. But two of these witnesses testified that such luxuries as beef and eggs were only sold to white men, and had been refused them.

One witness had seen some men who escaped brought back to camp by guards with rifles, and all had seen men abused without cause. Even with the excessive store prices two of the men had money due them, but payment was put off on one pretext or another.

The negroes all testified that the Adirondacks often was represented to them to be a nice, warm place, where there might be an inch or two of snow, but that the temperature was only two degrees cooler than it was down south.

Nine Poles, who had walked the whole distance from the camps from which they escaped two days ago, reached Utica late last night. They are lodged in the City hall. They say that three days after arriving in New York from Europe, they were engaged to come to the Adirondacks upon practically the same promises as were made to the witnesses who testified to-day. They had worked two months but never received a cent of wages.

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., March 8th, 1892.

The committee on ways and means of the common council of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and the undersigned, invite sealed proposals at this office to

at 7 o'clock p. m. for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds to the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-seven 74-100 ($25,337 74-100) Dollars, bearing date March 6, 1892, and payable as follows: Fifteen Hundred and Eighty-seven 74-100 Dollars, ($1,587 74-100) on March 6, 1893, and Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars at the expiration of every six months thereafter, to and including September 6, 1902, at the office of the city treasurer with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said Improvement Bonds are issued pursuant to Section 2704 to 2707 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Ohio, and also under an ordinance of the common council of the City of Toledo, Ohio, "To provide for the issue of improvement bonds to pay the cost and expense of the improvement of Front street, from Bridge street to Port Clinton Turnpike."—Passed Feb. 15th, 1892.

The denominations of these bonds will be first payment one bond of $337 74-100 and two of $625 each, and thereafter two of $625 each payment.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made if successful will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined, and the award made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the Auditor of the city of Toledo, Ohio," and be indorsed "Proposals for improvement bonds."

W. T. WALKER, City Auditor.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever see anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

In hollow trees,
Live white owls, chipmunks, bats and bees.
If I were a chipmunk, bat or bee,
I'd pack my stores in an empty tree.

Under the ground
Ants and beetles and snakes are found;
And troth, the snake with a leather skin
Needs a cellar to hide him in.

By the brook's brink,
Splash! go the beaver, muskrat, mink,
Clasped in a doublet close as he,
A beaver's hut was the place for me.

High o'er the rocks,
Lord of his watch tower, dwells the fox,
Where I more fleet than the west wind is,
I'd have a staircase steep as his.

Of nose and beak,
Tooth and tail, it were long to speak.
Every creature I must admire
Who lives in winter and needs no fire.

Whichsoever any one meets
Has hoofed his chamber or paved his streets;
Yet of all their wits, not one, you see,
Has learned the secret of lock and key.

Next to post-cards, Mr. Gladstone uses half-penny wrappers most extensively. The marked catalogues which he returns to book-sellers are always sent in a half-penny wrapper, with necessary directions scrawled on the margins of the book-lists. An amusing illustration of Mr. Gladstone's economy in this way was on view at a meeting of the ex-Libris society lately. In response to Mr. W. H. K. Wright's request for a copy of his book-plate, the G. O. M. sent one with a brief note, both inclosed in a half-penny wrapper; and yet this violation of postoffice regulations escaped the notice of the officials!

HER CRAZY QUILT.

Good old Aunt Keziah was in trouble; a prize of $25 had been offered for the best crazy quilt at the forthcoming fair, and she had already a high reputation in the neighborhood for such work.

The only trouble was that at present she was all out of silk and had no money to buy any more.

Prof. Vernon, who boarded with her, saw a way out of the difficulty, so he sat down and wrote out a letter, which was sent to every boy in the college:

I must of course conceal my name and give you no clue to my identity. You will see that when you have read what I am about to write.

I am a young lady of 17, belonging to a family of high social position; and I may say, since you do not know me, that I am not only rich, but handsome. I have had many offers, but since I have seen you I can think of no one else. Your appearance, your manner, the intelligence of your countenance, all thrill my soul, and I think of you night and day.

It is foolish, perhaps, but I long for something you have worn to treasure next my heart as a miser treasures his gold. You wore on one occasion a cravat of delicate tint that becomes you well. Will you send me that? You cannot dream what it will be for me to have it for my own. Yours—ever unknown, but ever loving, LEONIE.

Address L., postoffice.

The little boy who was employed for the purpose brought a bagful of envelopes to the professor each evening for three days. Each contained a love letter, more or less tender, vivacious, or sentimental, according to the character of the writer, and a brand-new cravat of delicate color, sedulously rumpled a little, to appear to have been worn.

Many inclosed photographs and begged an interview. Some professed to remember "that lovely face," so feel sure they knew it well.

The professor packed away the letters and photographs and took the cravats to Miss Keziah.

"The college boys sent you these," he said. "Will they do?"

"Do!" cried Miss Keziah. "Why, they are beautiful! I couldn't dream of nothin' more soothin' than the colors. I can't believe I'm awake. Oh, them good young men! May they all get the first prizes and honors!

"And as for you, just show those cravats at the gates of heaven, and you'll get in. There's a goodness in this that I ain't got no words for.

"Who else would care whether a poor old maid—old enough to be his gran'ma—had nothing or not? Do you think I'd orter go up to say I'm obleeged at the college?"

"They dont' admit ladies," said the professor, "but I'll take your message."

That evening he enjoyed himself greatly over the letters and photographs, while old Miss Keziah, with dove-like murmurs of joy, designed her crazy quilt.

She connected of the delicate cravats a very marvel of beauty, that reminded one of the leaves of wild flowers cast down together.

"Would she sell it for $100?" wrote the committee.

"If I was rich I'd never part with it," said poor Keziah to the professor. "I'd keep it for the remembrance of you and them good young men."

But the professor told her that they would rejoice in her good luck, and she wrote a trembling consent to the sale, blotted with tears of happiness.

The prize was hers. When the fair was closed she held in her hand $125, and in her heart the happiness that a little flutter of tickled vanity must give one unused to it.

Moreover, she had several orders for quilts from wealthy ladies who had desired to buy the original, and the professor's idea had really made her life easier.

Besides, now that Miss Keziah Pruden had become a little famous, one or two boarders came to occupy her vacant rooms.

Nobody ever made any confidence concerning those letters, except young Grubb. Young Grubb was very plain and not vain, and very fond of the professor.

Before he left college they supped together, and afterward sat smoking in the moonlight on the balcony.

"Prof. Vernon," said young Grubb, "if I tell you something you'll not laugh at me?"

"Oh, no," said the professor.

"It's foolish," said Grubb. "You know I'm an awfully ugly fellow, rough and all that; no here for a love tale—but I have one. Do you know a girl has fallen in love with me? A handsome grl. I never saw her.

"I'd give my life to find her. I'd worship the ground she trod on. She wrote to ask me for a cravat I had worn, to treasure. Really, I'm ashamed to tell you, but if any one writes to ask where Orlando Grubb has gone you'll give my address.

"She might have trusted me. I'm so thankful for a little love; it's not as it is with a lady's man. Well, I suppose I'll never meet her.

"The world is a small place after all. Most people meet. You may have met the writer of that letter without knowing it."

"No," said Grubb, softly. "No; I should have known her."

The professor would not have told him the truth for all the world, nor did he feel like smiling when on parting Grubb said:

"You know I shall be happier all my life for that letter. I did not think any one could like me."—Boston Globe.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

The large demand, in this and foreign lands, for BUCHU-PAIBA is the best evidence of its reliability as a remedy in Kidney and Genito-Urinary diseases, affections of the Bladder, &c. The increase in Kidney Complaints in this country in recent years has been arrested to a great extent through the merits of this new remedy BUCHU-PAIBA, which without doubt is the best known treatment for irritation, inflammation and catarrh of the Bladder, and the various diseased Genito-Urinary discharges. It is put up in convenient bottles that sell for $1.00 at Druggists or Chemists, or may be had of the manufacturer, express prepaid, by forwarding $1.00 to E. S. Wells, Jersey City, N. J.

Cockroaches, Ants,

Beetles, water bugs. The most effective and permanent remedy is—for two or three nights to sprinkle ROUGH ON RATS dry powder unmixed, on, in, about and down the sink and drain pipe; scatter it well but thinly all over the sink. First thing in the morning wash it all away down the drain pipe, repeat two or three nights, when all the insects from garret to cellar will disappear. The secret of this is in the fact that wherever the bugs or insects may be during the day, they must go to the sinks for water during the night. They can't stand ROUGH ON RATS in their water. This is the quickest, most effective and satisfactory remedy. ROUGH ON RATS being a poison, it should be used in this way only at night and washed away early in the morning. Another way is to mix a tablespoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a half pound of brown sugar. Sprinkle it on rear of cupboard shelves or on plates, or on sheets of paper placed high out of reach of children.

The late Admiral Jurien was noted at the court of Napoleon III. as one of the most conversers in France.

Hon. Wm. Walter Phelps, the American minister to Germany, who has been making a tour of Egypt, and the party accompanying him, before leaving Cairo visited the Abdin palace, where they were accorded an informal reception by the new khedive.

"The handsomest peer in England" is said to be the duke of Beaufort. The handsomest senator in our upper house is Gibson, of Maryland. The duke follows the hounds and plays a rattling hand at poker. The Marylander is a second "Terrapin Tom" Murray as an expert in gastronomy.

Dr. John Hall said at the ministerial meeting in Jay Gould's house that in 25 years he had never been obliged to go to a prison to look for one of his parishioners. But then few pastors are blessed with such substantial flocks as Dr. Hall. Millionaires don't go to prison as a rule, even if they are not church members.

Mr. Brice has a way, when on the floor of the senate, of flitting about among his colleagues during the moments occupied by unimportant business and bending over their desks for brief chats. His rambling visits are welcomed by the senators and by means of them he has established a reputation for good humor and passing courtesy.

REFORMING DRUNKARDS.

An Iowa Priest Calls Topers by Name and Makes Them Swear Off.

Fort Dodge, Ia., March 30.—Rev. Father McMahon, pastor at Britt, has made a novel but successful temperance crusade. At the close of the morning services, recently, and before the congregation left their seats, the priest called out a dozen young men to stand in front of the altar.

The men were notorious for excessive indulgence in intoxicants. Standing in the pulpit before them he preached an eloquent sermon on the evils of intemperance and implored the young men to reform. They were all visibly affected, and when the appeal was ended everyone lifted his hand and took the pledge.

BABY A SOLID SCAB

Torturing Disease of Blood and Skin. Many Doctors Fail Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

I have a sister troubled with blood or skin disease. It commenced when about one year old. We would try one doctor and then another, and it seemed like they were glad to get rid of it. When they would commence, they would say it is easy dried up and cured, but at last they would say it could not be cured. It ran on about two years. We had tried all the doctors around, and they had failed. I saw your advertisement in the paper, and wrote you for directions and you sent me a copy of your book at once. We then got CUTICURA REMEDIES and used it. It dried up the sores and healed them up right away. Her face, head and parts of her body were a solid scab. The way it would commence it would raise a small lump under the skin, then became a small pimple and itched so that she got no rest night or day, and she would scratch them, and yellow matter would come out of them and they would keep spreading and itching. I am sure from what I know of the CUTICURA REMEDIES they are the best medicines for scrofula, or blood or skin diseases that any one can use.

No Money Required of Responsible Parties to Commence Treatment

DOCTORS FRANCE AND OTTMAN,

Formerly of New York, now the Celebrated Examining Physicians of THE FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients, have decided to visit Toledo

Dr. France, Wednesday, April 13.
Dr. Ottman, Saturday, April 23.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The doctors describe the different diseases they treat. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State Incorporated with a Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,

38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, [illegible] has been marked, over two-thirds of our [illegible] ng ladies, old, young, married, single, [illegible] or. Our method is entirely free from objec[illegible] features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

TO A DEPARTED HERO.

Memorial Service in New York State.

A Profitable Night With Old Tecumseh.

Chauncey M. Depew's Eulogy on a Shining Light in the History of This Country.

Albany, N. Y., March 30.—Over 3,000 persons listened to Chauncey M. Depew's oration on the occasion of the memorial services in honor of General William T. Sherman under the auspices of the legislature of the state of New York, which were held here last night in Becker hall.

The members of the legislature met in the assembly chamber at 7:30 o'clock and proceeded to the hall in a body, where seats were reserved on the stage.

A large portion of the audience was ladies. The members of the Burgess corps acted as ushers of honor. Those occupying the front of the stage were Gen. Martin T. McMahon, of New York, with Chauncey M. Depew and Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan on his left, and Gen. Henry W. Slocum, of Brooklyn, and Speaker Bush on his right. The Rt. Rev. Francis McNierney, Bishop of Albany, opened the exercises with a prayer. Gen. McMahon introduced Gen. Slocum as chairman.

Chauncey M. Depew, on being introduced by Shairman Slocum, spoke in part as follows:

The passions of civil war usually survive centuries, but the issues of the rebellion were buried with its dead. Yesterday General Sherman was the last of that triumvirate of great captains, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, who were the most distinguished soldiers of our country, and of our times, and a familiar figure in our midst. To-day we commemorate his life and deeds; and the civil war is history.

General Sherman was destined from his birth for the career which has become one of the brightest pages in his country's history. His father, Judge Sherman, died suddenly, leaving his widow with little means, and a family of eleven children. The bench and the bar felt that the boys were the wards of profession. Ohio's leading lawyer, and United States senator, the Hon. Thomas Ewing, said: "Give me one, but the brightest," and the brothers and sisters of the future captor of Atlanta answered, "Take Cump, he is the smartest." This profound jurist and keen observer of character saw the future general in this quick, nervous, intelligent, pugnacious boy, with his Indian warrior name, and appointed him to the West Point Military Academy. Sherman's march to the sea, like the retreat of Xenophon and his ten thousand Greeks, will through ages, arouse the enthusiasm of the schoolboy, the fervor of the orator, and the admiration of the strategist. The capture of Atlanta had aroused the wildest enthusiasm among the people. For the thirty days during which the victors were lost in the interior of the confederacy, the North listened with gravest apprehension and bated breath. Then the conquering host were on the shores of the sea. Savannah was laid at the feet of President Lincoln by their general as a Christmas present, the confederacy was divided and its resources destroyed, and William Tecumseh Sherman became "one of the few, the immortal names, that were not born to die."

Gen. Sherman had such peculiar and striking elements of popularity, that party leaders begged and besought him to carry their standard. His election would have been a certainty, and he knew it. But his answer was, "I will not accept if nominated, and I will not serve if elected." Not the least of the dramatic memories which will distinguish this most sincere and original actor in the drama of life will be, that he will remain forever the only American who refused the presidency of the United States.

His daily walks were a series of triumphal processions. The multitudes never obtruded upon his privacy, but separated as he approached, and united when he passed, to express their individual and collective affection and gratitude. The encampments of the Grand Army were tame in his absence, but his presence called together from 50,000 to 100,000 comrades to greet "Uncle Billy," and rend the heavens with the chorus of "Marching Through Georgia."

He loved the theater and the stage, feeling the presence of a discriminating but adoring friend, was at its best when Gen. Sherman was in the audience. He lived in and with the public. There was something in the honesty and clear purpose of crowds which was in harmony with his ready sympathy and unreserved expression and action on every question.

This soldier, citizen, and patriot, this model husband, father and friend, held a place in every heart, and a seat by every fireside in the land. His death carried a sense of personal bereavement to every household, and plunged the country in mourning. His name and his fame, his life and his deeds are among the choicest gifts of God to this richly endowed republic and a precious legacy for the example and inspiration of coming generations.

A DISPUTED QUESTION.

Scientists and electricians cannot agree upon the number of electric volts which are necessary to cause a cessation of life in the human body; some claim that an excessive shock is more likely to cause incineration rather than instantaneous death, but if they would turn their attention to prolonging and increasing the pleasures of life, the public would hail the result with more satisfaction. For instance, the electricity generated in a wave of laughter is after all the most pleasant shock, and to see a large assemblage moved by a current of uncontrollable mirth while witnessing the play of "She Couldn't Marry Three," places beyond dispute the fact that large volts of laughter are better than volts of electricity any day.

EX-GOV. THAYER.

A Western Man with Wheels in His Head.

Omaha, Neb., March 30.—The Boyd-Thayer gubernatorial case was argued in the supreme court this morning. Thayer takes up the old claim that Boyd's father never completed citizenship; that Boyd never exercised citizenship prior to October, 1880, and was not a citizen prior to December 16, 1880.

Cowin, attorney for Boyd, submitted the decision of the supreme court as argument for not reopening the case.

NOVA SCOTIA'S STATEMENT.

Halifax, N. S., March 30.—Premier Fielding has made the annual financial statement of the province, from which it appears that the total expenditures during the past year were $692,538, the largest item being $225,477 for education. The revenue was $661,541, leaving a balance against the province of $30,997. The largest items of income were $432,826. Dominion subsidy $169,287 from mining royalties.

AFFAIRS IN CANADA.

Her Provinces Are Creating Trouble.

Newfoundland People Give the Statesmen Much to Think About in These Days.

Ottawa, Ont., March 30.—The tariff war between Canada and Newfoundland was discussed in the senate when Mr. Boulton moved for any orders in council, or letters of instruction, directing the custom authorities to put in force against the people of Newfoundland the tariff of 1885, which imposed duties upon their fish, and any other papers or documents relative to the matter now in dispute between the governments of Canada and Newfoundland.

Mr. Boulton spoke for two hours. While admitting that Canada acted properly in blocking the reciprocity treaty negotiated between Newfoundland and the United States, he held that Canada was the first to provoke retaliation. Several senators held that the blame rested entirely with Newfoundland.

REFUSES TO DIE.

A St. Louis Man With a Bullet in His Brain.

St. Louis, March 30.—Frank Tassen, the young man who was taken to the city hospital several days ago with a 38-calibre bullet in his brain, is still alive and seemingly doing very well. But why he continues to live is as much a mystery to the physicians who have attended him as is the manner in which he was shot to the police authorities. His is regarded as an abnormal case by the medical fraternity, and while it is possible that a man might continue to live with a bullet in the brain, very few instances are recorded.

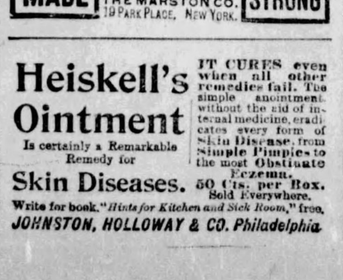
HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?



Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he is both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Artesian Well.

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, up to 12 o'clock at noon of Monday,

THE 11TH DAY OF APRIL, 1892,

for boring an artesian well at the corner of Locust street and Central avenue.

All bids must be written with ink and the price of each item shall be written out in full as well as in figures. Each bid must contain the full name of every person interested in the same. All parties filing bids for the matter specified in this notice, must deposit with the city clerk on each bid the sum of ..... dollars. All deposits to be in cash or certified check on a bank doing a regular banking business in the city of Toledo, and accompanied by an agreement signed by the bidder and two disinterested persons, guaranteeing that, if the bid is accepted, a contract will be entered into—otherwise the amount deposited to be forfeited to the city; and in case a contract is entered into, said deposit to remain until the first estimate of work done, (or double the amount of deposit,) is reported to the common council.

Bidders will be required to indorse their names on the outside of the envelope containing their proposal, and what the bid is for, the same to be filed with the city clerk. Bids not filed in accordance with the above requirements will be rejected.

Blank bids and envelopes can be obtained of the undersigned or of the city civil engineer.

Bidders must specify the time within which they will commence and complete the work after the acceptance of their bid.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the city civil engineer.

The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the council.

C. H. DURIAN, City Clerk.

Deaf from Catarrh

I WAS THE VICTIM OF THE WORST CASE OF CATARRH that I ever heard of. I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone sloughed off. No sort of treatment benefited me, and physicians said "I would never be any better." As a last resort I took Swift's Specific, and it entirely cured me and restored my hearing. I have been well for years, with no sign of return of the disease.—Mrs. JOSEPHINE POLHILL, Due West, S. C.

OVERWHELMING PROOFS.

It Is Easy to Make Assertions; It Is Not Always So Easy to Prove Them.

For the past year wonderful claims have been made for a Medical Discovery. These claims may have seemed extravagant; they were not. This entire paper could be filled with proofs that all, and more than all claims made were true, but we present only a few. Read them—they are both interesting and wonderful:

WOMEN.

I suffered terribly from nervousness and kidney trouble, had no appetite, and felt weak and tired all the time. Paine's Celery Compound has made me so well that I am cleaning my house (a very large one) without help. I am very grateful to the Compound, for it has given me good health, sound sleep, a good complexion, and the absence of doctors' bills.

Very Respectfully Yours,
GRACE THISTLE WATSON,
Ontario Centre, N. Y.

I have taken only a part of a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and it has entirely relieved me of sleeplessness, from which I have suffered greatly. It is a good medicine.

MRS. E. AUTCLIFFE, Peoria, Ill.

I suffered for two years with rheumatism in my limbs, back and neck. In the winter I was unable to rest except in a chair. I tried Paine's Celery Compound, and I wish every one suffering with rheumatism would go and do likewise. I feel younger than I did ten years ago; and can walk just as spry, with no more stiffness in my joints than when I was a girl. That is what Paine's Celery Compound did for me.

MRS. M. V. HUNGERFORD,
Paw Paw, Mich.

About two years ago my head troubled me so that it seemed as if I should go crazy. I had a tired, lagging feeling, my bowels were out of order, my kidneys troubled me, and I felt badly. Before I had taken half a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound I felt like a new person. Four bottles cured me and I would recommend it to all that feel the way I did. I know it saved my life and kept me from imprisonment in an insane asylum, which is as bad as death.

MRS. J. E. WILCOX,
Rural P. O., Wis.

Dear Sirs—With the help of the Lord, Paine's Celery Compound did for me just what it claims to do. I took it for constipation and nervousness, and it did not gripe or need any increased dose. I grew stronger, felt better and worked harder, through the Compound.

Truthfully yours,
MRS. B. S. CROSBY,
Brushton, N. Y.

MEN.

For twenty years I have suffered with rheumatism. I employed several different doctors, and tried as many as a hundred different remedies, but was not helped until I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound. I also recommend it as a pleasant and positive cure for constipation.

JOS. W. LAVIGNE,
Winooski, Vt.

For years a serious kidney trouble has been the bane of my life, and came near killing me. The most skillful physicians failed in giving me relief from my intense suffering. I used Paine's Celery Compound and am doing hard work every day, without any appearance of relapse, thanks to its wonderful merits. I know of many other wonderful cures by the Compound in this state.

Faithfully yours,
W. W. WARNER,
Jackson, Mich.

I have used two bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, and it has given entire satisfaction as an appetizer and blood purifier.

T. L. BERNER,
Watertown, Dakota.

I have used three bottles of Paine's Celery Compound for kidney trouble and pain in my back, and have been greatly benefited.

I. W. WAMPOLE,
North Wales, Mont. Co., Pa.

I have used Paine's Celery Compound with good results in torpidity of the liver with the attendant train of disorders. Its action is prompt and pleasant.

ALBERT LEONARD,
Athens, Ohio.

A year ago I had a savage attack of "La Grippe," and the humor spread almost all over my body. So that I was in torture all the time. For some months I was treated by a specialist, who had so much confidence that he could cure me that it was "no cure, no pay"—the only experience of that kind I ever had. After four months he told me he was beat.

Then I told him I would take Paine's Celery Compound and began to use it according to directions. In three weeks I began to see a little improvement, and in three months my skin was almost as clear as an infant's.

WM. H. ROBINSON,
Worcester, Mass.

The truth of these assertions is beyond question. They are precisely the same tone as hundreds of others all showing that for all nervous, debilitating, weakening or rheumatic troubles there is nothing equal to this Great Discovery. Do you not think it would be well to try it, and try it now?

IN TRADING CIRCLES.

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 352,566 bu and at five other points 139,654.

The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic points were: Wheat 416,883 bu and flour to an aggregate of 450,000 bu. Exports of corn 264,498 bu and of oats 22,850 bu.

London wheat market as reported here-in is firmer, corn steady. Liverpool wheat dull, corn lower.

Bradstreet's report of the visible supply makes wheat east of the Rockies decreased 1,052,000 bu and on the Pacific coast 305,000 bu; aggregate decrease 1,358,000 bu. Corn decreased 251,000 bu and oats 173,000 bu.

The Markets To-day.

Wheat opened east and west about 1-2c up to-day, and for a while the market promised a moderate rally. London market was stronger and the clearances were fair, while the receipts in the northwest were lighter. But there was too much wheat for sale. There are 12,500,000 bu wheat in store in Chicago, and 11,500,000 bu in Duluth, and about all of it is spring wheat. That at Chicago is not now wanted for export. This condition of stocks gives buyers the advantage. The advance did not hold, and the market broke 1-2c below yesterday's closing price. Chicago was unsteady, but the final closing for May was 3-8c lower in Chicago and 3-4c in New York.

Corn has ruled nearly steady in New York and also in Chicago except for May in the latter market the price has ruled higher.

Foreign markets are, as usual, dull.

In New York May wheat closed 3-4c and July 3-4c lower; May and July corn 1-8c lower; May oats 1-2c lower.

In Chicago May wheat closed 3-8c and July 1-2c lower. May corn 1-4c and July 1-8c higher. May oats 1-8c higher.

In Toledo business in wheat has been moderately active. The trading was fairly divided between cash, May, July and August. After a firm opening at an advance of 3-8c to 1-2c, prices begun to droop and comparing to-day with yesterday's close, May lost 5-8c, July 1c and August 7-8c. On the call May wheat sold at 88c. After the call May sold at 81 7-8c to 88 1-8c and closed at 87c; July sold at 84 7-8c and closed at 83 1-2c; August sold at 85 7-8c and closed at 82 5-8c. At close April sold at 87c.

Cash wheat was in fair demand for milling and about 15,000 bus were sold to that interest. No. 2 soft sold at 88c. At close about 87 1-2c was the market. No. 3 soft at 86 1-2c.

Corn—No. 2 at 40c, May at 40 3-8c. No. 3 at 39 1-2c. No. 4 at 37 1-2c. No. 2 yellow at 40c. No. 2 white at 41c. Rye—No. 2 at 83c.

Markets by Telegraph.

Chicago, March 30.—Opening: Wheat—May, 80 3-8c; July, 81 3-8c. Corn—May, 40 3-4c; July, 39 1-8c. Oats—May, 29c; July, 27 1-2c. Pork—May, $10 37 1-2; July, $10 55. Lard—May, $6 30; July, $6 37 1-2. Ribs—May, $5 70; July, $5 85.

New York, March 30.—Money easy at 1 1-2@2 per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates, 487@489; actual rates, 485 1-2@486 for 60 days, 487 3-4@488 for demand.

Governments dull: currency, 6s, 100 bid; 4s coupon, 117 1-4 bid; extended 2s, registered, 100 bid.

The stock market opened active. First prices were 1-8@1-2 per cent lower, but there was a general improvement from first sales, though the advances were confined to small fractions as a rule. While the general market improved slowly, the coalers were weak.

New York, March 30.—Flour dull and heavy; Minnesota extra, $2.90@3.10; superfine, $2.45@3.15; fine, $2.00@3.00; city mill extra, $4.75@4.90 for West Indies. Wheat strong and 1-2c higher; No. 2 red winter, cash, 99 1-4c; March, 97 1-4c; May, 92c. Corn strong and 1-2c higher; No. 2 mixed cash, 50c; April, 48 3-4c; May, 47 3-8c. Oats strong; No. 2 mixed cash, 35c; May, 34 7-8c. Rye quiet and steady; 88 1-2@91 1-2c for car lots. Barley steady; No. 2 Milwaukee, 68c. Molasses quiet and unchanged. Sugar, refined in light demand; cutloaf and crushed, 5@5 1-8c; powdered, 4 5-8@4 3-4c. Coffee steady; fair rio cargoes, 16 1-4c. R ieonominal. Pork steady; mess, $9.50@10.00 for old. Lard steady; May, $6.57; July, $6.67. Butter steady. Cheese in fair demand; state factory full cream, 12 1-4c. Eggs better demand; state fresh, 13 1-2@13 3-4c. Turpentine strong; 38 1-2@39c. Rosin dull and unchanged. Tallow easier; prime city, 4 11-16. Petroleum steady. Freights dull and weak; grain to Liverpool, 3 1-4d.

Live Stock.

Chicago, March 30.—The Evening Journal reports: Cattle—Receipts 6,500 head, shipments 3,500 head. The market was steady. Sales of good to choice steers at $4.25@4.75 per cwt., others at $3.35@4.20, stockers at $2.00@3.40, Texans at $3.40@3.45, cows at $1.40@3.00

Hogs—Receipts 15,000 head, shipments 7,000 head. The market opened strong and closed lower. Sales of rough and common at $4.10@4.35 per cwt., packers and mixed at $4.60@4.85, prime heavy and butchers' weights at $4.75@4.90, sorted light at $4.75@4.90, pigs at $4.50@4.70.

Sheep—Receipts 6,000 head, shipments 2,500 head. The market for sheep was steady; lambs lower. Sales of ewes at $4.00@5.25 per cwt., mixed at $5.60@6.50, wethers at $6.00@6.60, westerns at $5.90@6.25, lambs at $5.50@6.85.

Kansas City, March 30.—The Live stock Indicator reports: Cattle—Receipts 6,600 head, shipments 600 head. The market was generally steady. Sales of dressed beef and shipping steers at $2 05@4 00 per cwt, cows at $1 70@8 25, stockers and feeders at $1 50@3 45.

East Liberty, March 30.—Cattle—Receipts 320 head, shipments 223 head. The market was dull at yesterday's prices on all grades. Prime steers at $4 40@4 85 per cwt, fair to good at $4 00@4 40, common to fair at $3 50@3 80, bulls, cows and stags at $2 50@3 50, fresh cows at $20 00@40 00 per head. No cattle shipped to New York to-day.

Hogs—Receipts 8,100 head, shipments 900 head. The market opened strong and 5c higher, and closed weak with the gain lost. Sales of all grades at $4,00@4.65 per cwt, the bulk at $4.45@4.60.

Sheep—Receipts 3,200 head, shipments 200 head. The market for good sheep was active and strong; others weak.

The following officers were elected last evening by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Washington Street Congregational church: President, Geo. McIntyre; vice-president, Bertha Hineline; secretary, Ada Buck; treasurer, Lee Hanse. The election was followed by a literary and musical program and a reception to the officers.

THE CLAPP BILL

Will Work Ruin to Business Men of Toledo

If It Goes Through the Senate—A Letter That Means Much and an Interview.

The bill which recently passed the Ohio house, to regulate the taxation of mortgaged property, has created considerable comment among the citizens of Toledo who borrow or loan money.

It is the general opinion that if the bill becomes a law and is enforced, hundreds of business men will be financially ruined. The following brief but exceedingly pointed letter was received by a prominent resident of this city, this morning, from the firm whom he represents, one of the most extensive insurance companies in the United States:

"We learn that the Ohio house of representatives has passed a bill to tax mortgages held by non-residents. Has the state got all the money it wants?"

In conversation with a Bee on the subject the gentleman said: "A grave mistake will be made if the legislature enacts such a law. I can see it, and the letter is the story in a nut-shell. For this company alone we have loaned out over a million of dollars. This money has been borrowed by some of our most prominent and enterprising citizens at a rate of interest much lower than domestic money can be had. The tone of this letter indicates just exactly how foreign capitalists feel toward this proposed law. They will foreclose all loans as fast as they fall due, and invest the money in other states, where such laws do not exist.

"Suppose a merchant has conducted his business with a view of renewing the loan, and has expected such an obligation. The company concludes to withdraw from the state and gives notice that the loan will not be renewed. The merchant is taken by surprise, is not prepared to meet the debt, and a foreclosure follows. I haven't the least doubt that if this company was to close its business in Toledo, a half dozen business men would be financially ruined."

LOOK FOR MOCKETT'S.

Don't Get in the Wrong Store—Mistakes Are Expensive.

A lady was in our store yesterday buying a suit for one of her boys. She had another boy with her for whom she had bought a suit a short time ago from another store, but she said she thought she was in Mockett's until she left the store; then she realized her mistake. Well, the suit she had bought at the other store, and for which she had paid $6.00, she could have bought from us—better made and better fitting—for $5.00—one dollar less than she had paid at the other store. A saving of 20 per cent. Think of it, and be sure you are in Mockett's before you buy clothing.

THE AUTHOR'S CARNIVAL.

One of Those Affairs Not Seen Every Day.

First Presbyterian Church People Entertain in Handsome Style—Still There's More to Follow.

The authors' carnival, given in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church last evening, was a grand success, attended by a large number of people. The guests were received in a charming room, artistically arranged, by the following reception committee: Mrs. Cyrus Hussy, Mrs. M. D. Jones, Mrs. Dr. Kitchen, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Dr. Cook and Mrs. Will Ketcham. An excellent supper was served at 6:30 o'clock by the following supper committee: Mrs. Sessions, Mrs. De Forest, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Hime, Mrs. Gillette, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Valentine, Mrs. Jane Moore and Mrs. Hathaway. The dining room was prettily decorated with flowers, candles, etc.

The house of seven gables was represented, and Mrs. Dunning made an excellent Hepsibah, while Mrs. Roose acted as the niece, Phoebe. Lemonade, popcorn, etc., were sold herein. The nine muses had a pretty booth and sold candy, a very sweet occupation. Old Curiosity Shop was well worth seeing, and one could, with pleasure, spend considerable time in viewing the antiquities. A dream of fair women was wrat its name implies, for the tableauxs were fine, participated in by Miss Flora Fisk as Helen of Troy; Joan of Arc, Miss Kitchen; Iphigenia, Anna Weber; Cleopatra, Miss Taylor; Jeptha's daughter, Miss Quinn; Queen Elenor, Miss Eley.

The "Carnival News" was published by Mr. Tippett and Mr. J. Martin and was a good paper with increasing circulation. It gives the following account of the grand march, which occurred at 8 o'clock and was participated in by 80 people in costume:

"The grand march was a glorious success! Such a glittering pageant of intellectual greatness is seldom seen. And such a crowd as enthusiastic as that!

"The rooms were filled to their utmost capacity. Every nook and corner was crowded with gay and laughing humanity.

"Fully 40 couples participated in the march.

"The costumes were gorgeous and the representations perfect.

Great applause broke from the admiring multitudes as the characters swept gracefully by to the sweet strains that floated from one of Knabe's Grand. It was a beautiful sight. Shakespeare and all the worthies of the time were there in full dress, wigs and all other accoutrements. Even William Penn, in the person of J. R. Calder, condescended to lend his presence to the occasion.

"The historical Robinson Crusoe and his boy Friday were there too. Glen McGaw, as Shakespeare, had a slight limp that almost betrayed his Baconian proclivities; Ignatius Donelly never said a word. Giles Hubbard had so far recovered from the stigma that attached to him by virtue of his late conviction to "liberty" clothes from the missionary society that he appeared as Ichabod Crane and was really the best made up character of the evening."

Here are some of the characters represented:

George and Martha Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes; Shakespeare, Glen McGaw; Louise Alcott, Mrs. Tippett; Hannah Mooro, Mrs. Fochens; Jean Ingelow, Mrs. Dr. Gifford; William Penn and wife, Mr. Calder and Mrs. Sears; Samantha Allen, Mrs. Kate M. Adams; Josiah, Mr. Hill; Dickens, Mr. Rike; Longfellow, Mr. Ainsworth; Peggoty, Miss Kinninger; Florence, Edith Soyd; Cadely, Laura Munz; Mary Pecksniff and Cherry Pecksniff, Fannie Chidister and Della Kapp; Little Dorrit, Kittie Young; Pink and White Tyranny, Jennie Chidister; Rebekah, Margie Ainsworth; Maud Muller, Josie Currier; Minnie-Ha-Ha, Margaret Kitchen; Mother Goose, Ella Hime; Lady of the Lake, Marie Gilbert; Donald, James Hussy; Robinson Crusoe, D. Roberts; Gabriel, Mr. Trent; Evangeline, Miss Kinninger; Judge, C. Rieble; Enoch Arden, C. Valentine; Annie, Mary Cooper; Three Maids from School, Lotta Rake, Millie Nitschke, Florence Fouch; Princess, Miss Hawkins; Queen Guinevere, Mrs. Coon; Ichabod Crane, Giles Hubbard; Lancelet, F. R. Pergellis; Elaine, Cora Wade; Red Riding Hood, Miss McCullough; Mother Hubbard, Ella Hime; Donald and Dorthea, Reg. and Mary Taylor; King Cole, Ralph Collins; Miss Moffit, Gertie Barfield; Old-Fashioned Girl, Esther McMillan; the Muses were Mary McGaw, Jessie Paddock, Hattie Jack, Jessie Gifford, Beulah Waite, Carrie Borts, Netta Wylie, Lillie Hooper and Miss Mame Cummings; Harriet B. Stowe, Mrs. Fred Waite; George Eliot, Ada Collins.

Precilla—Miss Kate Kevnon—presided over her humble domain, and Miss Nell Moore, who was a Sister of Charity, often called at the place.

Ice cream and cake were served during the evening in a room presided over by Mrs. Rike.

A trio consisting of Messrs. Lewis, Wuerfel and Colton, furnished some excellent music, and there were several solos by Messrs. Lewis, Wuerfel and Colton. The general committee comprised Mrs. Dr. Gifford, Miss Lang, Mrs. H. N. Adams, Mrs. Tippett, Mrs. Flickinger, and Mrs. Hill.

It was a novel entertainment and must be seen to be appreciated. The Carnival will be repeated this evening.

The remarkable growth which, till within two years, was brought about principally by one person telling another, is a monument to Garfield Tea's merits.

A VALUABLE PRIVILEGE.

If you are sick and have not been helped why do you not write a full description of your case to the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. Fourteenth street, New York, known everywhere as the discoverer of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and who is without doubt the most successful physician in the cure of all long-standing complaints?

Consultation in all cases is entirely free, personally or by mail. Thousands consult him by letter, and he returns an answer to all perfectly explaining their diseases, giving advice, etc., without charge.

His success in curing diseases by his marvellous vegetable remedies is simply wonderful, and he has made a specialty of the cure of persons at a distance through letter correspondence and treatment. In this manner thousands of people have been and thousands more are being cured, and we should advise you, if you desire a sure cure from your disease, to immediately write him all about your case. It will cost you nothing to get his very valuable advice.

FRIGHTFUL SHIPWRECKS.

Staunch ships strike and flounder, the fierce winds and mountainous waves sweep noble mariners' "hearts of oak" to shipwreck and to death, yet that does not prevent the lubberliest landsman from risking his life on the stormy Atlantic in the role of tourist or commercial traveler. But if he shall reach his destination safely he will scarcely have escaped some of the qualms of sea sickness, unless he takes with him Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that infinitable specific for nausea. Bad water on long trips are a threat to the voyager, but this may be deprived in a great measure of its disordering effects upon the stomach, bowels and liver by the Bitters. Against the prejudicial effects of malaria, bad diet, fatigue and exposure it is also efficacious. It averts, moreover, rheumatism and kidney complaints. Don't travel on sea or land without it.

A WISE MAN HAS SAID

"There Is Nothing New Under the Sun."

And while this may be true, we think if the "wise man" had an opportunity of looking through our Linen stock just now he would admit that there are many beautiful new things among them.

Mr. Drummond having just returned from making the most extensive purchases he has ever made for the Lion Store is now prepared to show the choicest lines of Linens and White Goods that the most critical searchers could hope to find.

Complete assortments of New Linens and White Goods, including all the celebrated makes of India Lawns, Mulls, Dimity, English and French Nainsooks, Masalias, Marsailles, English Piques and Welts, Printed Swiss Mulls, Printed Dimities, Hemstitched Lawns and many choice novelties.

Many thousand dollars worth of the most celebrated makes of Table Linens, Napkins, Towels and Crashes. The most competent judges, the most critical buyers will be pleased with goods and prices.

All are Invited to Visit the Department.
